

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

INTRODUCTION.

ALTHOUGH the Members for Worcestershire cannot be traced further back than 1295, yet there is little doubt that the County enjoyed the privilege of returning Representatives, similarly to other shires, from the year 1215, though unfortunately the earlier names have been hopelessly lost. The Lists of Members for the last 600 years, based upon the Official Returns printed by order of Parliament in 1878, will however be found to be more complete and accurate than in that excellent work, inasmuch as Mr. Duncombe Pink has again placed at the writer's disposal the benefit of his years of careful research into contemporary Manuscripts and other sources, whereby the names of several Members, omitted from the Official Returns, have been supplied. Some difficulty has been experienced in attempting to identify the Members for the first 250 years, by reason of the numerous changes occasioned by Parliaments being held not only once a year, but frequently twice, and sometimes even three times a year. After that period Monarchs varied the routine by reigning for years without summoning a Parliament at all.

Worcestershire returned no less than 16 Members in 1295, two each for the Shire and City of Worcester, and the Boroughs of Bromsgrove, Droitwich, Dudley, Evesham, Kidderminster, and Pershore. With the exception of Droitwich, which survived till 1311, all these Boroughs parted with the privilege the same year as they first enjoyed it, and probably if not at their own request, certainly much to their delight, as the payment of the usual wages of the Members, two shillings a day, was always regarded as an irksome tax upon the resources of these smaller towns. It was not again till 1554 that Droitwich was re-enfranchised, while Evesham regained the right in 1604, and Bewdley was allowed one Member in 1605. In 1654 and 1656 Worcestershire returned five Members, and the City of Worcester two. The first Reform Act of 1832 divided the County into two Divisions, each returning two Members, and taking one Member from Droitwich, bestowed one each again upon Dudley and Kidderminster. The only change made by the Reform Act 1867 was to take one Member from Evesham, and it remained for the third Reform Act of 1885 to make the most sweeping changes, for not only did it deprive the City of Worcester of one of its Members, but it also totally extinguished the separate representation of Bewdley, Droitwich, and Evesham. On the other hand it divided the County into five Divisions, each returning one Member, and thus fixed the number of Worcestershire representatives at eight, just half what it was in 1295.

Worcestershire has practically been represented for 600 years by its own sons, and in most cases where seemingly some stranger has been elected, he will be found to have been connected by marriage ties with the County Families. Among the ancient families may be mentioned the Attwoods, Beauchamps, Blounts, Bracys, Cokeseys, Staffords, Talbots, and Throckmortons, all of note in their day, and during the last two or three centuries the political representation of the county has chiefly been distributed among such well known names as Berkeley, Bromley, Coventry, Foley, Harley, Lechmere, Lygon, Lyttelton, Pytts, Sandys, Ward, and Winnington.

Among the Worcestershire Members have been many eminent men. Passing over the many who attained the honour of Knighthood, by distinguished service to their Sovereign, in the numerous wars with France or Scotland, and those who in later times were admitted among the order of Baronets, several of its Members have attained the dignity of the Peerage, by creation or succession, such as the Duke of Manchester; the Earls Beauchamp, Bellomont, Coventry, Iddesleigh, Sefton, and Spencer; the Viscounts Cobham, Conway, Dudley and Ward, Hereford, Sherbrooke, and Windsor; and the Barons Annaly, Calthorpe, Campbell, Foley, Hampton, Herbert of Chirbury, Hindlip, Kennedy, Lyttelton, Masham, Northwick, Sandys, Somers, Truro, and Westcote.

Among the Members who have held high office were no less than three Lord Chancellors, Lord Somers, Lord Truro, and Lord Campbell; and four Chancellors of the Exchequer, Samuel Sandys, William Dowdeswell, the Earl of Iddesleigh, and Viscount Sherbrooke. Sir John Bourne, Viscount Conway, the Earl of Dudley, and Lord

Hampton were Secretaries of State. Thomas Winnington was Paymaster General, and Sir John Rushout Treasurer of the Navy. Robert Bowyer was Clerk of the House of Lords, and Sir Denis le Marchant Clerk of the House of Commons, while Samuel Pytts, Edwyn Sandys, Sir Edward Winnington, C. W. Boughton-Rouse, Sir F. W. Knight, G. C. L. Berkeley, and Lord Annaly held minor Ministerial offices. The Earl of Bellomont and Lord Westcote occupied the positions of Governors in America, while Sir Charles Cockerell was Postmaster General of India, and Sir Richard Temple Governor of Bombay. Sir Ralph Clare, Endymion Porter, Sir Henry Herbert, Crew Offley, Lord George Bentinck, Lord Masham, Henry Seymour, the Duke of Manchester, Earl Spencer, Earl Beauchamp, and the Earl of Coventry have all been Courtiers. Lord Marcus Hill was for years a Ministerial "Whip."

Of Judges of the Superior Courts there were Sir Robert Berkeley, Sir Thomas Coventry, Serjeant Cresheld, John Wylde, Nicholas Lechmere, Sir Robert Atkins, Sir William Morton, Sir Thomas Street, and Sir Richard Amphlett, while E. Winnington Jeffreys was a Welsh Judge. Sir Francis Winnington was Solicitor General, and Æneas McIntyre became a County Court Judge. Thomas Vernon was the celebrated Law Reporter. Francis Winnington and Alfred Bristow were Solicitors to the Admiralty.

Of Ambassadors there were Sir Thomas Edmondes, Henry Coventry, Sir James Rushout, and William Finch. Of Soldiers, Sir John Phelipp who fought at Agincourt, Sir Thomas Leighton, Sir Charles Lyttelton, Viscount Windsor, Phineas Bowles, General H. B. Lygon, Col. T. H. H. Davies one of the Waterloo heroes, and Major Anson who won the Victoria Cross in the Mutiny. Charles Cornwall was a distinguished Admiral. H. Crabb Boulton, T. Bates Rous, Samuel Smith, and Abraham Robarts were East India Directors, and William Manning a Director of the Bank of England. John Porter was an Alderman of London.

The stirring times of the Great Civil War brought into prominence the Worcestershire Royalists Sir John Hanmer, Anthony Langston, Sir John Pakington, Sir William Russell, and Samuel Sandys; while sturdy men of the Commonwealth were Sir Robert Harley, James Berry, John Bridges, William Collins, Edward Elvins, Samuel Gardner, John James, Thomas Rainsborough (who met with a violent death), and Richard Salwey.

Richard de Clebury was the King's Cook, while Sir John Musard was the King's Valet. Sir Henry Spelman was the celebrated Antiquary, while John Pakington is remembered for his spirited controversy with the Bishop of Worcester. To other Members a more melancholy interest attaches, for Sir John de Beauchamp was beheaded on Tower Hill, and Sir Humphrey Stafford slain in Jack Cade's rebellion. Sir Massey Lopes was sentenced to fine and imprisonment for bribery. G. W. Hastings was expelled the House. John Lyttelton and Sir Henry Bromley were both concerned in Essex's rising, and the latter was convicted of treason, and died in prison. Mr. Pickersgill-Cunliffe died from the effects of a railway accident.

Of the defeated Candidates who never gained a Worcestershire seat, the most noted were Edward Bearcroft, who became Chief Justice of Chester; Sir Edwin Chadwick, the Poor Law Reformer; Sir J. W. Huddleston, Baron of the Exchequer; Sir Watkin Lewis and Sir F. W. Truscott, both Lord Mayors of London; Sir George Lyttelton, Chancellor of the Exchequer; Viscount Monck, Governor General of Canada; and Sir John Willes, Lord Chief Justice of England.

Among the many authorities consulted, besides the usual Peerages and similar works, due acknowledgement must be made of such excellent local histories as Nash's Worcestershire, Price's Worcester, and Burton's Bewdley and Kidderminster, together with the Directory of National Biography, and Foster's Alumni Oxonienses; while the Patent Rolls, Close Rolls, and Calendars of State Papers have supplied many interesting incidents. The politics of the Members during the 18th century are inserted through the courtesy of the Rev. A. B. Beavan, M.A., who has also otherwise afforded much valuable information.

In conclusion the writer desires to express his sincere acknowledgments to the Subscribers for their generous support of the work, and to return his grateful thanks to the several ladies and gentlemen who have so courteously afforded him information concerning their families. He also desires once more to place on record the invaluable assistance rendered by Mr. W. Duncombe Pink, who with unfailing courtesy has at all times placed the results of his laborious researches at his disposal, and has very kindly revised the greater portion of the work.

MEMBERS

FOR

WORCESTERSHIRE.

1213, 1226, 1254, 1261, 1265, 1275, Jan. 1283, Sept. 1283, 1290, and 1294. The returns to all these Parliaments have been lost. Burgesses were first returned in 1265, but probably not to such an extent as in 1295, which was the first full House of Commons.

1295. William le Seneschal.
Simon de Crumbe.

The former was M.P. co. Worcester 1295, 1297, 1298, and died Dec. 1307. Pardon, at the instance of Edmund, the King's brother, 5 Nov. 1282, to William le Seneschal and others of their trespass in holding the Castle of Certel against the said Edmund. He and others received a commission to assess co. Worc., 12 Nov. 1294, and (as Sir Wm. le Seneschal, Knt.) 4 Dec. 1295. He and Alex. de Fryvill (see 1340) were app. 16 Sept. 1297, to select and retain in the King's service at the King's wages, Knights and Yeomen of co. Worc. at their discretion, to be at London with their horses and arms by a fortnight after Michaelmas. The same two were app. 24 Dec. 1307, to be Keepers of the Peace for co. Worc. during the King's absence beyond seas. On 28 Nov. 1307, Wm. le Seneschal and Edmund de Grafton (see 1311) were app. to assess and collect the twentieth and fifteenth granted to the King by the Parliament holden at Northampton in the 1st year of his reign; but on 6 Jan. 1308, Robert de Bracy (see 1301), and Osbert de Apetoft were similarly app. in the place of Wm. le Seneschal, deceased, and Edmund de Grafton otherwise employed. (Patent Rolls).

Sir Simon de Crombe, Knt., was M.P. 1295, 1300, 1301, and witnessed in 1320 the Charter of a Chantry given to Ripple by John Salemon. He held lands under the Bishop of Worcester in Tydelminton and Edmundescote, and paid twenty shillings yearly to the Bishop out of his manor of Crombe. He had many manorial rights which by form of law were forfeited to Walter de Cantalupe, but in 1273 were restored to Simon by his paying to the Bishop twenty shillings yearly for their redemption. He presented to Cromb Simon 8 id. May 1286, and 6 kal. April 1317 (Nash's Worcestershire). On 1 Nov. 1301, he and others were app. to assess co. Worc., and on 17 March 1308, were app. Conservators of the Peace for co. Worc. (Patent Rolls).

1296. No returns found.
 1267. William le Seneschal.
 William de Fokerham.

William de Fokerham (quaere son of Sir Richard) was M.P. 1297, 1302, 1305, 1306, and held the Manor of Warley under Roger de Somery, temp. Edw. I. The family continued till at least Edw. III. Edmund de Grafton (see 1311) and Wm. de Fokerham were app. 10 May 1300, Commissioners for co. Worc., to hear and determine complaints of transgressions against Magna Charta; and on 26 Aug. 1309, Wm. de Fokerham and others were app. for co. Worc. to assess and levy the twenty-fifth upon all moveable goods for the war in Scotland.

1298. William le Seneschal.
 Thomas de Botteleggh.

The latter was also M.P. co. Gloucester (as T. de Botiler) 1305. On 10 April 1290, the King granted pardon to Thomas de Botteleggh, late Verderer of Feckenham Forest, for a fine of 100 shillings.

1300. March. Roger de Bracy.
 Simon de Crumbe.
 1300. May. Return lost.
 1301. Robert de Bracy.
 Simon de Crombe.

Robert de Bracy, of Warndon, was Sub-Sheriff of co. Worc. 1298; M.P. 1301, 1305; held two hides of land in Warmedon, presented to Madersfeld 10 kal. June 1311, and to Warmedon 14 kal. June 1300, 17 kal. Jan. 1303, 12 kal. May 1313, and 17 kal. June 1314, and was made a Conservator of the Peace for co. Worc. 17 March 1308. The heiress of this line m. Thomas Lygon temp. Hen. V. (see 1467). Robert de Bracy, Peter de Salso Marisco (see 1306), Wm. de Salso Marisco, and Paulinus de Kaudif were witnesses 13 Oct. 1283, to the confirmation of a grant of the Manor of Knithwyk, co. Worc., by the Prior of Great Malvern, to the Bishop of Worcester. He and Edmund de Grafton (see 1311) were app. Commrs. to assess and collect the aid in co. Salop 30 July 1297. Commission of oyer and terminer 24 Oct. 1298, to Wm. de Mortuo Mari and Robt. de Bracy, touching the persons who entered the park and free-chace of Matilda, late the wife of Philip Burnel, at Conde, Salop, hunted therein, and carried away her swine of the forest. Commission of oyer and terminer to Robert de Bracy and another, 15 July 1310, touching a breach of the park of Guy de Bello Campo, Earl of Warwick, at Beleye co. Worc., He also served on several other similar Commissions. (Patent Rolls).

1302. William Fokerham.
Adam de Elmerig, or Elmebrig.

Otherwise Elmerugge or Elmbridge. Probably of the same family as Roger de Elmerugge, M.P., for co. Hereford, 1318 (see Williams' Parliamentary History of Herefordshire). Adam de Elmrig held Elmerugge temp. Edw. I. and was descended from Ynardus de E. who is mentioned in the Testa de Nevill as holding 4 parts of a Knight's fee in Elmerugge. The family ended in 1507 with an heiress who m. Sir John Dannet.

1305. Robert de Bracy.
William de Fukeram.
1306. William de Fukerham.
Peter de Salso Marisco.

The latter sat for co. Worc. 1306, 1307, and was either the same or the father of the M.P. for Yorkshire 1330. He and others received a commission of oyer and terminer 16 April 1288 touching Henry de Wintonia, who being charged with the death of Thomas de Blake of Brockton was detained in this prison of Worcester and by inquisition of the Sheriff of Worcester was found to have been so charged in hatred and malice and was bound over to appear before the Justices at their first assizes but has surrendered himself to prison to obtain swift justice. He was one of those app. to raise the assessment in co. Worc. 12 Nov. 1294. (Patent Rolls). On 31 July 1321 Sir Peter de Salso Marisco acknowledged that he owed to John de Ellerker the elder, 100 shillings; to be levied, in default of payment, of his lands and chattels in co. York. On 5 July 1322 he also acknowledged that he owed to Thomas de Cobham, Knt., £100; to be levied of his lands in co. Norfolk. (Close Rolls). These however may have applied to his son.

1307. January. Peter de Salso.
Walter Haket.

The writ returning Peter de Salso is endorsed with the words, "Non venit quia infirmus." Walter Haket and his wife Isabella are mentioned in the Patent Rolls for 1285 as complaining to the King that they and others held Ekington manor at farm from William le Poer who ejected them therefrom without due cause, for which they sought redress. On 5 June 1309 the King granted Protection until All Saints' Day for Walter Haket going beyond seas with Robert de Tony; and the same date Walter has letters nominating Henry de Hextan his attorney for one year. Appointment 6 Aug. 1309 of Walter Haket to the custody of the King's Castle of Mackenegan (Newcastle) co. Wicklow. Sir Walter Haket, Knt, sat for Salop 1316.

1307. October ; and 1308. Returns lost.

1309. Robert Sturmy.
Robert de Somery.

The Sturmys were seated at Sutton Sturmeay from very early time, and certainly held the same lands as late as Hen. VI. Another branch continued at Rushock until 7 Hen. VII. A knight named Sturmy was very zealous for recovery of the Holy Land. John Sturmy paid for lands in Sutton temp. Edw. I. ; and in 20 Edw. III. John de Sturmy held the same lands in Sutton which Robert Sturmy anciently held. Robert Sturmy was M.P. 1309, 1315. The King granted Pardon 27 Dec. 1327 at the request of Roger de Mortuo Mari, to Robert Sturmy, Simon de Crombe (see 1295), Robert de Somery, John de Everle (see 1320), Thomas de Littleton (see 1316), Richard de Hauckeslowe (see 1322), Richard de Ruyhale, John de Stone of Temedebury (see 1320), Richard Bertram (1329), Robert de Sevenhampton junior (see Worcester 1332), Thomas de Newyngton, Richard atte Boure, and others of £329 6s. 8d. remaining due on a fine which they were compelled to make with the late King, by the procurement of Hugh le Despencer and others of his confederacy, for a certain trespass maliciously charged upon them by the said Hugh. On 3 Sep. 1327 commission of oyer and terminer issued to Robert Sturmy and others on complaint by William del Hay, that John de Stone (see 1320) and others carried away 3 horses, 8 oxen, and 3 cows at Littlehey, Salop.

Robert de Somery who was M.P. 1309, 1313, 1316, 1325, 1332, was probably a younger grandson of Roger de Somery (who began about 1261 to make a Castle of his manor house at Dudley and was obliged to obtain a licence from the King in 1263, to enable him to proceed with the work, and who died 1273, leaving an eldest son Roger who died 1300). Robert was apparently younger brother to Sir John de Someri, summoned to Parl. as Baron of Dudley in 1308, and d. in 1322, and who through his eldest sister and co-heir was ancestor of the Lords Dudley. Robert de Somery and Alex. de Befford (see 1313), received a commission 10 March 1327 to hold an inquisition concerning the state of the manor and forest of Feckenham, the custody of which had been committed by the King to Robert de Haileye during pleasure. On 16 Sept. 1332 Walter de Newenton (see 1336) and Robert de Somery were app. to assess and levy in co. Worc. the fifteenth and tenth of moveable goods, granted to the King in the present Parliament for the business of Ireland and other business. Robert de Somery presented to the living of Bishampton in 1286.

1311. Aug. John de Wasseburne.
Edmund de Grafton.

Sir John de Washbourne who was probably grandfather of the M.P. 1403, was son of Sir Roger. Order 1 April 1315 to Master John Waleweyn, escheator this side Trent, to deliver to Matilda wife of Roger de Chaundos, a Knight's fee in Olreton co. Worc. which John de Wasseburn holds, of the yearly value of £4, assigned to her as part of her dower. (Close Rolls).

Sir Edmund de Grafton was M.P. 1311, 1313, 1314, app. a Commr. to assess co. Worc. 1 Nov. 1301, and on 15 July 1301 was one of those app. to enquire by jury of co. Worc. what Bailiffs or Ministers had received bribes to stay at home, from the 500 footmen selected in co. Worc., and to attach them and compel them to join the army without delay. He was app. 26 Aug. 1309, a Commr. for co. Worc. to assess and levy the twenty-fifth upon all moveable goods, for the War in Scotland, and on 4 Dec. 1312 a commission of oyer and terminer issued to him and others on complaint of Robert de Loggore, parson of the Church of Sutham, that John de Derby and others forcibly carried away his goods at Sutham, co. Warwick. He was doubtless an early ancestor of the Graftons who "did formerly enjoy a long revenue of lands, both in Worcester and Worcestershire, as at Grafton, Flyford and Pendock, and also other lands in co. Stafford." They seem to have become extinct before the Visitation in 1569.

1311. Nov. Sir John de Wasseburne Knt.
Sir Edmund de Grafton Knt.

1312. William le Galeis
William le Seneschal.

The latter was the son of the M.P. 1295, and was one of those app. 26 Aug. 1309 to assess and levy the twenty-fifth upon all moveable goods in co. Worc. for the war in Scotland.

Wm. le Galeis was perhaps the same as Wm. de Waley, M.P. Salop, 1324. The name afterwards became Walsh.

1313. March. Edmund de Grafton.
Alexander de Besford.

The enrolment of the Writ de Expensis gives Alex. de Besseford and Walter Haket (see 1307). Alexander was M.P. 1313, 1315, 1324, and presented to Flavel Flivord 2 kal. Mar. 1300, and was still patron of that Church in 1321.

1313. July. Return lost.
1313. Sept. Edmund de Grafton.
Alexander de Besforde.

1314. April. Return lost.
1314. Sept. Edmund de Graftone.
John de Bysshoppesdon.

The latter was also M.P. co. Warwick 1319, and (as Knt.) 1326, 1330. Commission of the Peace 22 July 1330 to John de Bishoppesden in co. Warwick pursuant to the Statute of Winchester. He and Robert de Valle were app. 1328 Collectors in co. Warwick of the twentieth of moveables granted to the King by Parl. for the defence of the kingdom against the Scots.

1315. Robert de Sturmy.
Alexander de Besford.

1316. Jan. Richard de Clebury.

Appointment 26 Aug. 1307 of Richard de Clebury, the King's Cook, to the custody of the manor of Stourton subject to a yearly payment into the Exchequer. On 3 May 1313 Richard de Clebury going beyond the seas with the King and on his service had protection until St. Peter ad Vincula. He was Cook to the three Kings, Edward I., II. and III., and on 9 Feb. 1328, the King granted to Master Richard de Clebury, in consideration of his good service and of his infirmity, and at the request of Roger de Mortuo Mari de Wygemor, leave to absent himself from the Court and to return again and resume his labours at his pleasure, receiving his wages, fees, and robes, at the time of the livery, as well present as absent, and if too infirm to labour, then he is to receive his wages and robes at the Exchequer. Grant for life 21 July 1331 to R. de C., King's Sergeant and Cook, of the bailiwick of the forestership of Corndon by Montgomerie. Appointment 22 July 1334 of Master R. de C., King's Yeoman, in consideration of his services to the custody of lands in Russhton, co. Northampton (Patent Rolls). He acknowledged 20 May 1318 that he owed to Robert Albyn £16 4s. 7d., to be levied, in default of payment, of his lands and chattels in co. Worc. (Close Rolls).

1316. April. Robert Somery.
Thomas de Luttelton.

The latter was the 2nd son of Thomas de Luttelton, and m. Julian, dau. and heir of Robert de Somery. He was the first of the family to represent the County, which so many of his descendants have since done. Commission of oyer and terminer issued to Justices 15 July 1309 on complaint by Roger de Billesleye and Isabella his wife that Thomas de Littleton and others entered his houses at Coketon, co. Warwick, assaulted him, his children, and servants, imprisoned him, took away his wife Isabella to Warwick and imprisoned her there, impounded 6 of his oxen and 8 of his cows, broke his close, felled his trees, and with cattle depastured, trampled down, and consumed his growing corn. He succ. his eldest brother, Edmund of Coulesdon, in his estates at Naunton and South Lyttelton, and was M.P. co. Worcester 1316. The name is derived from Littleton in the Vale of Evesham.

1316. July. Robert de Somery.
Thomas de Luttelton.

1318. Walter de Berthrop.
Walter le Blount.

Commission of oyer and terminer issued to Justices 1 June 1330 on complaint by Roger de Mortuo Mari, Earl of March, that Walter le Blound, Richard Bertram (see 1328), and others broke his park at Cleobury Mortimer, Salop, entered his chace at Wyre, hunted there and carried away deer. Sir Walter le Blount, of the Rock, co. Worc., was 2nd son but eventually heir of Sir William le B., by Isabel, dau. of Wm. de Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick. He m. Johanna, 3rd sister and co-heir of Sir Wm. de Sodington (see Evesham, 1295), and thereby acquired the Manor of Sodington, and d. 1322. He was ancestor of the long line of Blounts of Sodington.

1319. Roger Mael.
John, son of Simon le Brun.

As to the latter see 1336.

1320. John de Everleye.
John de Stone.

John de Everley, Lord of Spechesley, presented to Spetchley 1298, 17 kal. Oct. 1325, and 15 kal. June 1338, as did Wm. de Everley 20 April 1345. The Sheriff of Worcester was ordered 1 July 1316, to cause two coroners for that county to be elected in place of John de Everleye and Robert de Staunton, who resided in the farthest limits of the county, so that they could not conveniently execute their office. (Close Rolls).

John de Stone was M.P. co. Worc. 1320, 1322, 1324, 1327, 1328, 1330, 1334, 1337, 1339, 1342, and also for the city 1339. He and Hugh de Cokeseye (see 1337), were commissioned 29 Aug. 1336, on information that the bridge of Wyk by Worcester was in a dangerous state, and that those who were bound to repair it refused to contribute to its repair, to survey the bridge and to distrain on those, who by reason of their lands in those parts, had to support the bridge for the necessary repairs. Wm. de Stone was Lord of the Manor of Stone 1285, as was Thomas de Stone 1300.

1321. Walter le Blount.

Sir William Liggon Knt.

John Talbot, of Grafton (see 1572), wrote a letter to his brother, Gilbert, Earl of Shrewsbury, in 1604, complaining of an undue election for co. Worcester, Sir Edmond Harewell and Sir John Packington being candidates, Sir William Walsh having retired in favour of Sir Henry Bromley. He mentioned "Young Sir Thomas Russell" as being the Sheriff and Returning officer. (See Nash's Worcestershire).

In 1642 his seat at Frankley was burned to the ground by Prince Rupert's orders to save it being occupied for Parl.

Sir Thomas Littleton Knt. and Bart.

Sir Walter Devereux, of Leigh Court, which he purchased from Mr. Colles (see 1597), was eldest surviving son of the Hon. Sir Edward D., of Castle Bromwich, co. Stafford (only son by his 2nd wife of Walter 1st Viscount Hereford), whom he succ. as 2nd Bart. 14 Sept. 1622, was b. 1578, knighted 23 July 1603; m. (1) before 1603, Eliz. Warwick 1617, and of co. Worc. 1626, a Commr. 9 March 1637, to compensate the river proprietors who had suffered damage by the attempt to improve the navigation of the River Avon, succ. his kinsman Robert Earl of Essex, the Parliamentary General, as 5th Viscount Hereford 14 Sept. 1646, and as Lord Lieut. of cos. Hereford and Montgomery 1646, and took the Covenant 18 Nov. 1646. At the commencement of the Civil War Sir Walter Devereux was seated at Leigh (Lye), near Worcester, and was the only noted Parliamentarian in the county. His two houses of Leigh and Conleigh were burnt by the Cavaliers, and he fled to Bristol where he remained until Prince Rupert took the city. His lordship in 1647 petitioned Parliament for £50,000 compensation—£20,000 for the loss of his two houses, and £30,000 for 4 years rental. He purchased Sudbourne in Suffolk, where he died Jan. 1657 or 1659. Administration granted 20 June 1659.

1625. April 27. Sir Thomas Littleton.
William Russell.

Of Strensham, son and heir of the M.P. 1601, matric. Wadham Coll., Oxon, 12 May 1620, aged 18, ent. Middle Temple 1621, m. Frances, dau. of Sir Thomas Reade, of Barton, Berks, was created a Baronet 12 March 1627, M.P. co. Worc. April to Aug. 1625, H.S. 1636, 1642, J.P. 10 July 1660, presented to Witley 17 Jan. 1633, and Strensham 24 April 1639, 7 Dec. 1643, elected an Honorary Freeman of Worcester 1643, and d. 30 Nov. 1669, bur. at Strensham. Sir William was in 1635 a stubborn opponent of William Sandys (see Evesham 1640), in his attempt to improve the navigation of the Avon, although he was made 9 March 1637 a Commr. to compensate the riparian owners damaged by the scheme, and instead of aiding did his utmost to retard the work. He was an active royalist, and fought at Worcester under Prince Rupert in Sept. 1642, when "the Roundheads pillaged his house to the bare walls." In the treaty between Col. Henry Washington, Governor of Worcester, and Col. Thomas Raynesborough (see Droitwich 1646), for the surrender of the city (19 July 1646), the latter insisted that Sir William Russell (one of the garrison) should be exempted from the benefit of the treaty, and this caused a long delay, during which Sir William was much pressed to escape in disguise, but he refused, saying he would willingly surrender himself for the public good, as he had but a life to lose, and it could not be better spent. Upon his absolute refusal to escape or stop the treaty any longer, the noblemen and gentlemen, thinking themselves bound in honour, signed a letter to Sir Thomas Fairfax, desiring that Sir William Russell might have the benefit of the treaty, and that he could not by any other means so much oblige the country. Sir Thomas replied that Sir William should be used as a gentleman and be prisoner to Col. Raynesborough. He was assessed at £3000 on 8 July 1644, but it was ordered 11 Sept. that his assessment be discharged for £500 paid in Tower Ward, he depositing that £80 was his one twentieth. 15 Jan. 1649, Frances, the wife of Sir Wm. Russell (her husband being prisoner in the King's Bench under several executions for debt), begs to compound. 19 Feb., Fine at one third, £2071, to be £1800 if he settles the Rectory upon the parish of Birlingham. 24 July 1651, summoned before the Committee for Compounding to take the Oath of Abjuration. 5 Jan. 1649, Information that Sir Wm. Russell Bt., of Strensham, and John Horniold, of Blackmore, are bound in £600 for a debt of £312 to Walter Blount, of Seddington (see 1553). Order 16 Sept. 1653 for seizure of Blount's estate. 23 Oct. 1654 the County Committee certify that the defendant Blount is dead. Sir William, who was an intended Knight of the Royal Oak 1660 (when his estates were put down at £3000 a year), signed the Worcestershire address to the King 8 May 1660, declaring that they would not punish the Roundheads, but forgive and leave peaceably with them. He must not be confused with Sir William Russell Knt. and Bart., a much older man, who was first a Muscovy merchant, and then Treasurer of the Navy 1618-42, and M.P. Windsor 1626.

1626. Feb. 1. Sir Thomas Littleton.
Sir John Rous Knt.

Sir John Rouse, of Rouse Lench, son of Edward R., who d. 1611, m. Esther, dau. of Sir Thomas Temple, of co. Warwick, was Knighted July 1607, H.S. co. Worc. 1611, 1637, J.P. in 1620, M.P. Feb. to June 1626, was app. a Commr. to compensate the riparian owners of the Avon 9 March 1637, and d. 1645. He must not be mistaken for sir John Rous Knt, of Henham Hall, Suffolk, M.P. Dunwich 1624, 1625, 1626, whose descendant was created Earl of Stradbroke 1821.

1628. Feb. 28. Hon. Thomas Coventry.
Sir Thomas Bromley Knt.

The former was eldest son of Thomas, 1st Lord Coventry (see Droitwich 1620), whom he succ. 14 Jan. 1640, was b. 1606, m. 2 April 1627, Mary, younger dau. of Sir Wm. Craven Knt., Lord Mayor of London 1611, and sister to the 1st Earl of Craven, was M.P. Droitwich 1625, 1626, co. Worc. 1628-9, app. one of the Council of the Marches of Wales 2 May 1633, a Compensation Commr. for the Avon 9 March 1637, Joint Commr. of Array in co. Worc. 1642, and signed the Engagement with the King at York 1642, and d. in London, 27 Oct. 1661. By his will, dated 31 Aug. 1657, Lord Coventry left £500 in charity to the poor of Evesham. "Thomas Lord Coventry, of Croome D'Abitot. 15 Jan. 1644, on information that he has money and goods in the East India Company, order that they stay all' belonging to him in their custody. 15 April, assessed at £3,000; Sept. 20, assessed at £1,500 by the House of Peers; 11 April 1645, Parliament having assessed him at £1,500, and the same not being paid, all his goods and chattels in his house at Westminster are to be seized, inventoried and sold by the candle, towards satisfaction thereof. April, Note that Lord C. paid at several times sums amounting to £1,500." In 1642 Lord Coventry defended Worcester against the forces of Parl., but was defeated by Col. Sandys. His younger son Thomas, 5th Lord, was created Earl of Coventry 1697.

1640. March 11. Sir Thomas Littleton.
Sir John Packington Bt.

Sir John Packington, of Westwood, eldest son of Sir John Packington, 1st Bart., of Aylesbury, Bucks, M.P., who d.v.p. Oct. 1624, aged 24, born 1620, succ. his father as 2nd Bart. Oct. 1624, and his grandfather Sir John P. (one of the Privy Council to Q. Eliz.) in the estates Jan. 1625, when "in his fifth year, and under the guardianship of Lord Coventry, the Lord Keeper (see Droitwich 1620), by whose vigilant care of his education, both by travel and other advantages, he became a most accomplished gentleman." He m. Dorothy, dau. of his guardian, Lord Coventry, and sister to the M.P. 1628, was elected M.P. co. Worc. and Aylesbury March, but preferred the County, till May 1640, Aylesbury Oct. 1640 till disabled Aug. 1642, for his loyalty, was adm. an Hon. Freeman of Worcester 1643, J.P. co. Worc. 10 July 1660, signed the County Address to the King expressing forgiveness of the Roundheads 8 May 1660, again sat for co. Worc. 1661-79, presented to Hadsor 16 Sept. 1674, and to Hampton Lovet 18 Aug. 1660, 30 Aug. 1679, and d. 13 Jan. 1681. Sir John received from the King in 1642 a commission for arraying men for his service in co. Worc., on account of which he was taken prisoner and committed to the Tower, and fined £5,000, had his estate sequestered, his house in Bucks (one of the best in that county) levelled with the ground, and such great wastes committed in his woods, that an estimate of his loss, still remaining in his lady's handwriting, amounts to £20,348. In 1651 he joined Charles II. with a troop of horse, at the battle of Worcester, and was taken prisoner there, yet was so popular, that when afterwards tried for his life, not one witness could be procured to swear against him, so he was acquitted and set at liberty. On 22 April 1646, he "begs to compound for delinquency, as submitting before 1 Dec. last. Adhered to the King's party, and was at the battle of Kineton, after which he returned to co. Worc., and endeavoured by special messenger to his wife in London to procure a pass, which she could not do. On 21 March last by pass from the Governor of Evesham, he came up and rendered himself to the Speaker, but repairing to Goldsmith's Hall on the 23rd, he was ordered into the custody of the Serjeant at Arms. Begs his liberty upon bail to prosecute his composition, being much impaired in health by his long restraint in the hot season. 24 Oct., Fine at $\frac{1}{2}$, £13,395. 15 July, Fine reduced to $\frac{1}{3}$, £7,670. 2 Jan. 1652, Charge that he assisted the Scots army at Worcester 1651, by appearing at Pitchcroft with a sword by his side, when the pretended King of Scots was at Worcester. 27 Sept. 1659, his estate to be seized for suspected complicity in Sir G. Booth's rising." (Committee for Compounding). On 11 Dec. 1649, it was reported that he had paid £3,500 of his fine, and part of his estate ordered to be settled on the Borough of Aylesbury, for which £2,670 was to be allowed him out of his fine. He was imprisoned in the Tower Dec. 1654 to Sept. 1655, for alleged plotting against the Protector. His lady was esteemed one of the most learned of her sex at that time, and was the reputed author of The Whole Duty of Man.

1640. Oct. 21. John Wylde.
Humphrey Salway.

The celebrated Long Parliament, expelled by Cromwell 20 April 1653. John Wylde was the son and heir of George Wylde, of Kempsey, Serjeant at Law (see Droitwich 1584), by Frances dau. of Sir Edmund Huddleston. He was born 1590; matric. Ball. Coll., Oxon, 18 Jan. 1605, aged 14; B.A. 20 Oct. 1607 (incorporated at Cambridge 1608), M.A. 4 July 1610; ent. Inner Temple Nov. 1602; called to the Bar 1612; Bencher 1628; Serjeant at Law 1636; M.P. Droitwich 1620-2, 1624, 1625, 1626, 1628-9, March to May 1640, Jan. to April 1659; co. Worcester Oct. 1640-8; a Rumper 1659; a Commr. of the Great Seal 10 Nov. 1643-6 Oct. 30; Recorder of Worcester July 1646; Chief Baron of the Exchequer 12 Oct. 1648-53 Dec., or to, 1 May 1655, and 17 Jan. to May or 1 June 1660; m. Anne eldest dau. and co-heir of Sir Thomas Harries Bart., M.P., Serjeant at Law of Tong Castle, Salop, and d. at Hampstead in 1669. Serjeant Wilde was app. Under Steward of Kidderminster by the new charter 4 Aug. 1636, and was a most active member of the Long Parliament, serving as Chairman of several Committees of the House. When the Civil War broke out in 1642, he subscribed two horses and their maintenance for the defence of Parliament. He was one of the managers for impeaching Archbishop Laud 1644. The Commons recommended him to be app. Dep. Lieut. co. Worc. 18 March 1642, he was made a Sequestration Commr. for co. Worc. April 1643, was J.P. in 1620 and 1654, and app. an Assessment Commr. 1656. He was a member of the first two Councils of State Feb. 1649 to 15 Feb. 1651, but being disliked by Oliver Cromwell, was removed from the Exchequer 1653, and petitioned in vain to be re-app. 1659, though Parliament re-instated him next year. The Commons ordered, 3 June 1645, that Serjeant Wylde and his colleague Humphrey Salway "be paid £4 a week for their present maintenance," but this order was discharged 20 Aug. 1646. He served on the following Committees of the House, namely for Assessment of England and Wales Oct. 1644, Sequestrations Feb. 1643, Grocers Hall April 1644, Camb. Univ. Oct. 1645, to regulate Oxford Univ. July 1646, and of Safety July 1648, and indeed most of the principal Committees of the Long Parliament.

Humphrey Salway of Stanford, eldest son of Arthur S. of that place, (Secondary of Mr. Fanshaw's office), matric. Bras. Coll., Oxon, 8 Nov. 1590, aged 15; B.A. 16 Feb. 1593, ent. Inner Temple Nov. 1594; m. Anne 2nd dau. of Sir Edward Lyttelton Knt., of Pillaton Hall, co. Stafford; was fined £25 on 6 July 1630, for not taking Knighthood at the coronation of Charles I., app. a Commr. to compensate the Avon proprietors 9 March 1637, was J.P. co. Worc., app. a Sequestration

Commr. for co. Worc. 1643, a member of the General Assessment Committee Oct. 1644, of the Committee on Scandalous Offences June 1646, and on the Navy Committee May 1649, a Parl. Commr. to reside with the army in Scotland 18 July 1645, a Commr. to try the King Jan. 1649, but did not act. He was app. by Parl., 3 Aug. 1644, First or King's Remembrancer of the Exchequer (£400 a year), vice Fanshaw dismissed, and held that office and sat for co. Worc. from Oct. 1640 till his death, being buried in Westminster Abbey 20 Dec. 1652.

1653. June. Richard Salway.
John James.

This was Barebone's Parliament, the Members of which were not elected, but appointed by Oliver Cromwell and a Council of Officers, and summoned to meet at Westminster 4 July 1653, by letters under the hand of the Lord General Cromwell. This assembly declared itself a Parliament 6 July, and resigned its powers to the Lord General 12 Dec. 1653. (Commons Journal).

Major Richard Salway, of Richard's Castle, co. Hereford, 4th son of Humphrey S. (see 1640), m. Anne dau. of Richard Waring, Ald. of London. He was app. one of the Parl. Committee for co. Worc. 1644, sat for Appleby Oct. 1645-53, co. Worc. June to Dec. 1653, and was a Rumper 1659. The following details of his career, gathered from the Commons Journals and Calendar of State Papers, show his activity on behalf of the Commonwealth:—He was app. one of the Committee for executing Martial Law in London and Westminster Aug. 1644, of Assessment for co. Worc. Oct. 1644, of Scandalous Offences June 1646, for Irish Affairs April 1647, of the Navy 1648, and for Regulating the Universities Sept. 1650. The Committee of both Kingdoms gave instructions to Richard Salway and others employed on a mission to the Earl of Ormond and others at Dublin 17 Oct. 1646. He was nominated a Commr. for Ireland 14 Sept., but the Council recommended that Miles Corbet be app. in his stead 26 Nov. 1650. The Committee for compounding ordered the Treasurers at Goldsmith's Hall 12 Nov. 1650 to pay £1,000 a year each to Col. John Jones (see Williams' Parl. History of Wales), Major Richard Salway, and John Weaver, from Michaelmas last, for diet and charges as long as they were employed as Commrs. in Ireland. Order in Parl. 20 Nov. 1650 appointing Richard Salway and 16 others to be a Committee to state the business of the revenues of the Papists lands. On 25 Nov. 1651 the Committee for Compounding wrote to him:—As you live near Whichwood Forest, sequestered from Lord Craven, please to take care of the State's interest therein, that we may better perform our trust. Order in Parl. 14 July 1652 that he and Luke Robinson M.P. report touching the powers and practice of the Committee for Compounding in appeals. In 1654 the Levant Company petitioned the Council of State to appoint him Ambassador to Turkey, but this was not done. He was made Ranger of Wychwood Forest 1654, Mayor of Worcester 1654, a member of the 3rd Council of State 17 Feb. to Nov. 1651, of the 4th Council Dec. 1651-2 Nov., and of the 6th Council 29 April (his appointment approved by the House of Commons 9 July) to Oct. 1653, and was placed on the Committees for the affairs of Ireland and Scotland 1 March 1651, and upon several other Committees. He was app. one of the Committee of Safety 7 May 1659, app. 7 May one of the Council of State, which was to last 17 May to 1 Dec. 1659, app. 20 June 1659 first of the five Commrs. to manage the Revenue for six months, was one of the Council of State May and June, and one of the Committee of Safety June till Oct. 1659, President of the Council of State in Sept. 1659, and one of the Council of Ten app. by the Army 28 Oct. 1659. A Restoration Tract, entitled The Mystery of the Good Old Cause, briefly unfolded, says of him:—"Richard Salway, once a Grocer's Prentice, and their spokesman in one of their tumultuous hurries to the Long Parliament, and ever since was taken notice of for a great talker. He was a main man in the Committee of Safety; for which the Rump, when they sat again, rebuked him gently, as one that had gone astray from the Good Old Cause; a Major in the Army, and a great purchaser." Of his after career the following glimpses are given:—"30 July 1662, Francis Lord Newport to Secretary Nicholas—Major Salway is brought into Shrewsbury Castle and shall be sent to London. 11 Aug., Lord Chancellor Clarendon to Lord Newport—The King consents for Major Salway to be set at liberty as there is no information against him; several persons of unquestionable integrity give security for him and he has entered obligations for his peaceable demeanour. He will not only have no hand in disturbances, but will prevent or discover them. Commends him for protection and countenance, that he may not be disquieted for past memories. Oct. 1663, Warrant for search and apprehension of Major Richard Salway, to be committed close prisoner to the Tower, for treasonable designs. 2 Nov., Warrant to Sir John Robinson, Lieutenant of the Tower, to receive him prisoner for dangerous practices. 7 Nov., Warrant to the same to permit Sir Allan Apsley and Salway's wife to have access to her husband. 16 Jan. 1664, Warrant to the same to permit Salway to have pen, ink, and paper to draw up a petition to the King in the presence of his keeper. 30 Jan., Resolution that Salway be released on good security. 3 Feb. 1664, Warrant to Sir John Robinson to release Salway on his taking the oaths of allegiance and supremacy, giving security for good conduct, and paying the prison dues." Henry Coventry (see Droitwich 1661) wrote to Williamson 1 April 1664—"Major Richard Salway, late prisoner in the Tower, is summoned before a Committee of the House of Commons to give testimony in Sir John Packington's business (see 1640), but as there is a proclamation forbidding all such officers to stay in or come to town without leave, a license is requested for him."

Col. John James, of Astley, co. Worc., and Trippleton, co. Hereford, son of John James, of Astley, by Mary dau. of Walter Winford, was H.S. co. Hereford in Dec. 1650, app. a Sequestration

Commr. for it 4 Sept. 1649 and 7 Feb. 1650, but discharged for unsatisfactory accounts in or about March 1652, app. Capt. of a Troop of Horse Militia in co. Hereford 21 Aug. 1650, a Commr. for ejecting scandalous and insufficient Ministers and Schoolmasters in it Aug. 1654, and a Commr. to raise £1,000 Assessment upon it 1656. The Committee of both Kingdoms ordered, 19 April 1647, that "Capt. James shall have power to seize upon and recruit his troop out of such horses as are the State's, marked with the State's mark, and have been embezled and sold away to any persons in cos. Bucks, Berks, and Oxon." It is doubtful whether the "passes granted to Capt. James to go to Holland 15 May 1650, and to go beyond sea 20 Feb. 1652," apply to him. The Committee for Compounding wrote to him 26 Dec. 1650, "Knowing how much you may contribute to carry on Sequestration work, we have joined Mr. Herring (see Williams' Herefordshire Members), with you therein, and beg you both to use the utmost care to manage it to the best advantage. We have heard so much of your prudence and readiness that we believe you will omit nothing, and therefore will not trouble you further." He replied on 10 Jan. 1651—"Thanks for your remembrance of me and my cousin Salway (his colleague). I am sorry I cannot answer your expectations in regard of other public business, but I shall spare as much time as I can for your business." He was added by Parl. to the Committee for Sequestrations in co. Worc. 29 July 1648, and re-app. by the Committee for Compounding 10 Sept. 1651, but in this latter case it appears that he did not accept the office. Col. James was app. Commander of the Horse and Dragoons in co. Worc. under a commission from the Council of State, 31 March 1651, to "raise and command the forces in co. Worc. under the Militia Act," and he was ordered a further one 30 June for "listing volunteers in co. Worc." On 7 Oct. 1651 the Council wrote to him at Worcester—"The Council have ordered Col. Cooper to search for some gold said to be hid in Worcester, belonging to the enemy; the money is found, and 150 pieces of old gold are now in your hands; send it up to us to be disposed of as the Council shall direct." The Council wrote him on 31 March 1651—"Being informed of your fitness to command the horse and dragoons raised in co. Worc., we have issued a commission for that purpose, which we enclose, and desire you to give your best furtherance and assistance in raising of them that they may be ready on all occasions for preservation of the peace." He received a commission as Captain in the 1st Horse Regiment for the safety of the Eastern Association and Inland parts 21 April 1651, and as these measures were taken to repel the Scots army under Charles II., it is probable that Col. James took an active part in the disastrous defeat of the King at the Battle of Worcester. He was added by order of Parl. to the High Court of Justice 25 June 1651, and app. 1 Nov. 1653 (and took the oath of secrecy 5 Nov.) as a member of the seventh Council of State, which lasted till Dec. 1653. He was M.P. co. Worc. June to Dec. 1653, app. one of the Ordnance Committee and also of the Committee for Lunatics 8 Nov., and was added to the Irish and Scotch Committee 28 Nov. 1653. The Council of State ordered 15 June 1653, that Col. John James and other M.P.'s "should have the lodgings late in possession of Sir Henry Vane, Sir H. Mildmay, and Col. Thomson, and any others they think fit, so that they may be lodged together," and further ordered 8 July, "that the Whitehall Committee should put them in possession of the house late Dennis Bond's." The stern rulers of the Commonwealth firmly set their faces against duelling as appears from the following instance—"25 April 1654, Lord Protector's Council. The Lord President having last Saturday issued a warrant to take into custody Charles Rich and John James on information of a quarrel between them, both parties appeared before the Council where both were bound in £1,000 and two sureties in £1,000 not to fight each other, nor break the public peace. 8 May, a warrant to be prepared for commitment of both to the Tower, they not having attended to give security. 10 May, two warrants signed but suspended till Jessop (Assistant Clerk of the Council) give notice to Rich in the country. 19 May, Order that they both give security in £1,000 each with two sufficient sureties to keep the peace towards each other for all times to come and neither of them to break it, and on so doing that their warrant for commitment to the Tower be suspended." From the following references he seems to have been brought to trial at the Restoration, but if condemned must have been afterwards pardoned. "31 May 1667, Petition of Jasper Waterhouse for payment for services in drawing out the indictments, &c., against Sir Hardress Walker, Wm. Hewlett, John James, Sir Henry Vane, John Lambert, and others, for high treason." 1 Sept. 1670, "Licence for John James, of Tripleton, co. Hereford, to remain in and about London and Westminster, although an officer in the army of the late usurped powers." Col. John James m. Jane, dau. and heir of Wm. Higgins, of Tripleton, co. Hereford, and died at Tripleton May 1681, aged 71. His eldest son Higgins James, (aged 48 in 1682) d.s.p. 1709, having m. (1) Eliz., dau. of Hon. Wallop Brabazon, of Eaton, co. Hereford, and (2) 1698 Mercy, sister of Samuel Pytts, of Kyre (see Co. 1710).

1654. July 12. Sir Thomas Rous Bart.
Edward Pitt.
Nicholas Lechmere.
John Bridges.
Talbot Badger.

(5 Members.) All were supporters of Parliament at the time. Sir Thomas Rous, of Rouse Lench, son of the M.P. 1626, matric. Bras. Coll. Oxon., 20 Oct. 1626, aged 18, B.A. from Corpus Christi Coll., 31 Jan. 1628, ent. Middle Temple 1628, m. (1) Jane dau. of Sir John Ferrers, of Tamworth Castle, (2) Frances (who d. 20 June 1667, aged 28), dau. of David Murray, and (3) Anne—(who died 1667?) He was made a Baronet 23 July 1641, ordered by the House of Commons to be added to the Committee for co. Worc. 20 Feb. 1645, H.S. 1648, an Assessment Commr. 1656, Custos Rotulorum 1656, J.P. 10 July 1660, M.P. co. Worc. 1654-5, 1656-8, Evesham April to Dec. 1660, presented to Rouse Lench 3 July 1663, 6 Aug. 1666, and d. 26 May 1676, aged 67. (M.I. Rouse Lench.)

Edward Pytt, of Kyre, eldest son of Sir James Pytt Knt., was b. 1606, m. Eliz. dau. of Sir Samuel Sandys, of Ombersley, (see 1609), sat for co. Worc. 1654-5, 1656-8, Bewdley Jan. to April 1659, Leominster April to Dec. 1660, H.S. co. Worc. 1633, J.P. 10 July 1660, a Commr. for disbanding and paying off the forces in co. Worc. 1660, and for raising money for the King there 1661, and d. at Kyre, 3 Nov. 1672, aged 66. From the following references it appears that Mr. Pytt was a royalist at heart, although like many others, circumstances forced him to hold office under the Commonwealth. The House of Commons ordered his Plate to be sold, 22 May 1643, (Commons Journal), yet he was a Sequestration Commr. for co. Worc. in 1643 and 1647, and was app. an Assessment Commr. 1656. On 22 July 1652 "Edw. Pytts begs discharge on the Act of Pardon. Was questioned in 1648 before the Committee for Sequestrations, and by them discharged. Was never sequestered, but in Feb. 1652 was questioned by the County Committee of Hereford. 22 July, the County Committee to certify if his estate was sequestered 1 Dec. 1651; if not, he is to be discharged." Deposition of Miles Hill, 12 Aug. 1654, "that one Edw. Pitt of Kyre, M.P. said publicly at Weobley that he would be hanged before he would be subject to any instrument in Parliament when the people had chosen him for their liberties, and he believed that instrument (the Lord Protector) would come to nothing."

Nicholas Lechmere, 3rd but eldest surviving son of Edmund L., of Hanley Castle, by Margaret, dau. of Sir Nicholas Overbury, of Bourton on the Hill, co. Gloucester (see Williams' Gloucestershire Members), was b. Sept. 1613, educ. at Glouc., matric. Wadham Coll. Oxon., 28 Jan. 1631, aged 17, scholar 1631, B.A. 14 Feb. 1634, ent. Middle Temple Oct. 1634, called to the bar in 1641, Bencher 1655, Lent Reader 1669, M.P. Bewdley, July 1648-53, co. Worc. 1654-5, 1656-8, Jan. to April 1659, a Rumper 1659, an Assessment Commr. 1644, 1656. He was present as one of the Parl. Committee for co. Worc. at the siege and surrender of Worcester, June and July 1646, app. a Militia Commr. for co. Worc., a member of the special Commission to try Welsh insurgents June 1651, added by Parl. to the High Court of Justice 25 June 1651, Attorney General of the Duchy of Lancaster 1654-60, licensed to practise within the bar in all the Courts at Westminster 15 July 1655, which license was renewed by Richard Cromwell 23 Oct. 1658, walked in the procession at Oliver Cromwell's funeral as Att. Gen. of the Duchy to which office he was re-app. two days before the dissolution of the Rump, April 1659, but in 1660 applied to the King while still at Bruxelles and received a full pardon, for the sum of £200. He m. 1642 Penelope 4th dau. of Sir Edwin Sandys Knt., of Northbourne, Kent, and niece of the M.P. 1609, became Serjeant at law 1 May 1689, Knighted 31 Oct. 1689, a Baron of the Exchequer 4 May 1689 till he res. 23 June 1700, was one of the founders of Greenwich Hospital, and d. at Hanley Castle 30 April 1701, aged 87.

Col. John Bridges, of Alcester and Harcourt Hill, co. Warwick, was an active soldier of the Parliament. He conveyed ammunition into Gloucester when besieged by the royalists April 1644, and took part in the siege of Worcester under Col. Edward Whalley, and was a Parl. Commr. to receive its surrender July 1646. On 11 May 1644 the Commons ordered John Bridges, Major of Foot, to be added to the Committee of co. Worc., and on 30 March 1645 gave him a vote of thanks "for his great services," app. him Governor of Warwick Castle and Town 12 May 1645, and made him Colonel of Boseville's regiment of foot 24 June 1645. As Gov. of Warwick Castle, which post he held in Nov. 1644, he exercised great military authority in that and the adjoining counties. He was ordered to return his forces into winter quarters 25 Nov. 1646, and was "continued" as Gov. of Warwick Castle 25 March 1647, and still held the place in 1649, and afterwards served in Ireland. The Council of State made out a warrant to him 30 April 1650 to deliver two iron demi-culverins, lying useless at Lord Brooke's house in Holborn, to Col. Thomas Fitch, Gov. of Carlisle. On 22 May 1655 he "begs discharge of mills and 12 acres in Kidderminster, bought of Mary Lady Blount. Has served Paul faithfully and is now in service in Ireland. Was executor to Francis Greville late Lord Brooke ('fanatic Brooke' killed in storming Lichfield 1643), and himself discharged from his assessment 1 May 1644, having done good service as Governor, and paid an assessment in the county." 7 April 1657, "Petition of Col. John Bridges, Gov. of Kilmallock, and a debenture for arrears for personal service, on an account stated by the Committee sitting at Worcester House, referred to the Irish Committee to report." 21 March 1660, "Warrant to pay him £100 for his expenses in Ireland where he is going on special service." Information was laid against him 22 Aug. 1649 that he had captured and concealed 25 waggons, many laden with plate and other treasure, belonging to the late King, and the memory of this lasted for several years. In June 1660 Sir Joseph Wagstaffe petitioned the King "that Col. John Bridges late Gov. of Warwick Castle, who detains £50,000 worth of the late King's money and goods, may be excepted out of the Act of Oblivion;" and the same month Charles Talbot laid information against him and others "for seizing the late King's carriages about the time of the Battles of Naseby and Edgehill." On 17 Aug. 1663 Lord Ashley reports that Bridges was "acquitted on a suit brought against him for detaining plate and household goods of the late King, but Capt. John Strode (Gov. of Dover Castle), thinks he can convict him. Lord Ashley advises him that Strode may be encouraged by a grant of the King's moiety of what is discovered." 21 Aug. 1663, Warrant for a grant to Capt. Strode for a "moiety of what is taken and unaccounted for, and not pardoned by the Act of Indemnity." Col. Bridges soon after 1648 bought Hurcott near Kidderminster, from the well-known John Evelyn for £3,400, and about 1670 sold the patronage of the Church to Thomas Foley (see 1659). Col. Bridges was the eldest son of John B., of Alcester, co. Warwick, and Hackney, barrister at law, (by Elizabeth Holyoake,) and was b. 1610, and m. 1635 Mary dau. of Bartholomew Beale, of Walton, Salop. He was added to the Committee for dealing with Scandalous and Malignant Ministers in co. Worc. 24 Sept. 1652, and sat for co. Worc. 1654-5, and for co. Sligo and Roscommon 1656-8. His brother Brooke Bridges, Commr. of forfeited estates in Ireland, died 1700. Their great grandfather John Bridges, who was of an Irish family, settled at South Littleton, co. Worc. 1558, and subsequently purchased the Alcester estate. Col. Bridges' grandson was made a Baronet 1718, and the 5th Bart. was created Lord Fitz Walter 1868, which title expired 1875.

Talbot Badger, of Poole House, Hanley, son of John B. of that place, matric. Lincoln Coll. Oxon., 5 April 1639, aged 17, was a Parl. man, M.P. co. Worc. 1654-5, and app. an Assessment Commr. 1656. "By his holy and humble life he exercised much influence for good on his neighbours." Perhaps brother to Roland Badger, of Hanley Castle, who on 19 Jan. 1654 "begs to contract for two thirds of his estate on the late Recusants' Act. 11 Jan. 1655, complains of his sequestration for Recusancy on a bare suspicion, having lived quietly all the late troubles." Jane dau. and heir of Talbot Badger m. Anthony Young, of Henley, to whom she carried Pool House. Sir Thomas Badger Knt. was M.P. Stockbridge 1625, 1626, and Lostwithiel March 1628-9.

1656 Aug. James Berry.
Sir Thomas Rous.
Edward Pitt.
Nicholas Lechmere.
John Nanfan.

(5 Members.) Major General Berry, who was a friend of Richard Baxter, and appears to have been a man of some principle, was a clerk in some ironworks in Salop, at the outbreak of the Civil War in 1642, but joining the parliamentary forces, distinguished himself as an active soldier, and speedily attained to great power in the army, was Captain Lieutenant under Oliver Cromwell at the battle of Gainsborough 28 July 1643, distinguished himself at the battle of Preston, chosen by the army President of the Council of Adjustors in the disputes between the Army and the Parliament in 1647, and app. to suppress an intended rising in Nottinghamshire 1655, and made one of the 12 Major Generals instituted by Cromwell March 1655, and placed in command of cos. Monmouth, Hereford, Salop, and N. and S. Wales, but whose almost despotic powers were greatly abridged by the Protector's measures Dec. 1656, little but the title being retained. He was elected M.P. for cos. Mon., Hereford, and Worcester 1656, but choosing the latter, represented it till made one of the Protector's House of Lords as Lord Berry 10 Dec. 1657, was app. one of the sub-committee on the business of the Fens 28 June 1653, served upon numerous committees, and was app. an Assessment Commr. for the county and city of Worcester 1656, being then an Alderman of Worcester. He joined the cabal against Richard Cromwell 1659, was added to the Council of State by order of Parliament 9 May 1659, app. one of the Council of State ordered to exist from 17 May to 1 Dec. 1659. was a member of the Committee of Safety and for the nomination of Officers July to Oct. 1659, (attended 11 meetings out of 16 in July), was one of the Committee for Dunkirk Sept. and Oct. 1659, one of the Parl. Commrs. for governing Ireland 1659, and app. by the Army a Commr. for the same purpose Jan. 1660. He was cashiered with the other Generals by Parl. 12 Oct. 1659, but on the army gaining the upper hand, was nominated by the army 28 Oct. 1659 one of the Council of Ten to constitute the Committee of Safety and for nominating Officers. Being with other officers suspected of designs against the Council, he was ordered by them "to repair to his house" 9 Jan. 1660, and they further ordered 14 Jan. "that he be secured for disobeying." He was attainted at the restoration, and being regarded as too dangerous a foe to be left at liberty, remained under restraint for years in one prison or another. A warrant issued to the lieutenant of the Tower "to receive Col. Berry into his custody, and keep him close prisoner," 18 May 1662, and on 25 July another warrant issued to the Gov. of Scarborough Castle, Sir Jordan Crosland, "to receive Col. Berry into custody for treasonable designs," and he was so received 30 Aug. 1662. Secretary Nicholas wrote to Sir Jordan, 14 April 1664, requesting that Col. Berry "be allowed so much liberty as may conduce to the benefit of his health," and in Oct. 1667, Berry who was then the only prisoner in the Castle, addressed a letter to the Governor, saying that he "hoped after nearly 8 years imprisonment and damage suffered in his estate, that he might have had liberty without making any tacit acknowledgment of guilt, or having any character put upon him. Has been passive in his sufferings hitherto, and shall endeavour to continue to do so, and not trouble him any further." Whether he continued a prisoner until his death is uncertain, but his friend Baxter in his Autobiography relates that on being released, "he became a gardener, and lived in a safer state than in all his greater." Another authority identifies him as second in command at Newton Butler in Ireland in 1689, and gives his death as taking place 9 May 1691, but this appears very improbable. (Dict. Nat. Biog.)

John Nanfan, of Birts Morton, eldest son of William N., of that place, m. Mary dau of Edward Fleet alias Walsgrave, of Worcester, was app. an Assessment Commr. for co. Worc. 1656, J.P. 10 July 1660,

M.P. 1656, but Cromwell would not let him take his seat so he returned to the country, unsucc. cont. the County 1659, and the City of Worcester 1661, presented to Birts Morton 1661, Pendoc 14 Aug. 1661 and 20 June 1668, and d. about 1677. On 28 June 1650 John Nanfan and three others, trustees of Sir Edward Golding, of Colston Bassett, Notts, and Eye, Suffolk, recusant, begged discharge from sequestration of Colston Bassett manor and other lands settled on them 8 Charles I. for 21 years for payment of debts.

He and Col. John Bridges (see 1654) presented to the Rump in 1659 a petition from Richard Baxter in favour of tithes and the ministry. Mr. Foley (said Baxter) was "a truly honest and religious man, who bought the advowson of Kidderminster." He founded a Hospital or Alms-house at Old Swinford 1667, endowing it with land producing £600 a year, and in 1889 this endowment had increased to £5,500. a year.

He was Lieut.-Gov. of Worcester under Prince Maurice in 1644, and General of H.M.'s Dominions of Wales, and was taken prisoner at Worcester 19 July 1646. "By these sacrifices however the greater part of his estate was spent, and at the Restoration the only compensative allowed him was £6,000 out of the Excise of Devonshire." (Burke's Peerage). The Seasonable Argument for a New Parliament 1677, on the other hand, says that "a Boon was given him in the Excise which he sold for £135,000." He was assessed at £800 on 17 Dec. 1646, and his estate ordered to be sequestered for non-payment thereof 8 March 1648, but owing to his remonstrances he was ordered 10 May to produce a catalogue of his debts, and "if they reach £30,000 his assessment to be discharged. 21 June 1648, his assessment discharged, it appearing by his particulars that he is £25,000 in debt." " 8 July 1710.

SIR,—I must owne that when by yr present Parliament and the supplies they gave wee were so successful against our enemies I could not inagine there was any reason to dissolve them presently. And therefore I did not doe myselfe the honor of answering yours until this time. But seeing there are endeavours in soe many places for members I think it proper to stirr for a person I have an opinion will act for the good of this country. A gentleman that stood for Worcestershire was so very uneasy under a solemn promise hee made as to his prejudice to break it. But when I consider that you have an ample fortune, a family and soe much compasse of mind as to be for preserving the constitution and transmitting it to posterity and that you had rather be esteemed a person of honor and sincerity than among those that are . . . for all that believe them I think my vote and small interest is very safe in serving you and shall be heartily employed in it, and I am with great respect your reall friend & servant." G. PAUNCEFORT.

I return you many thanks for your kindnesse to my tenant Maullin & I will write to & any otherwise engage Mr. Blackmore and Mr. Spilsbury & any others that I think may serve you.

1715. Feb. 2. Sir J. Pakington T. 1770.
Thomas Vernon W. 1802.
Samuel Pytts T. 1676.

Pakington and Vernon though of different politics stood jointly against Pytts. 3424 voted at this election, the Plumpers being, for Pakington 56, Vernon 1313, Pytts 31. Thomas Vernon of Hanbury, lord of the manor of Feckenham, was eldest son and heir of Rev. Richard V. of Hanbury Hall, born 25 Nov. 1654, called to the bar at the Middle Temple 167-, and m. 1679 Mary dau. of Sir Anthony Keck Knt. (a Commr. of the Great Seal 1690). He practised in the Court of Chancery for 40 years, and was considered the ablest man in his profession. He built Hanbury Hall about 1710, presented to Shrawley 7 Sept. 1711, was adm. an Hon. Freeman of Worcester 1715, (being then a Commr. for building the bridge across the Thames from Fulham to Putney), and sat for co. Worc. 1715 till his death s.p. 6 Feb. 1721, aged 67. (M.I. By his will, (which was made 17 Jan. 1711, and proved March 1721), he left a charity of £18 to the poor of Shrawley. His Reports of Cases in Chancery 1681-1718, were printed by order of the Court of Chancery 1726, 1728. In the poem Corona Civica, addressed to the Lord Keeper 1706, appeared these lines :—

"Experienced Vernon joy'd your worths success,
Polite his manner, winning his Address,
Strong to confute, and easie to express,
Causes unnumbered, no Fatigue create.
To his vers'd mind, nor has the Burden weight.
A look serene his clear Disceinment shows,
Law has no puzzling doubt to knit his Brows ;
Secure of fame he flies a loftier Fate,
Content with riches in a Safer State."

A Banner, (still preserved at Hanbury Hall), with a portrait of King George I. and a view of the Cathedral of Worcester, and the river Severn with ships, (painted by Sir James Thornhill M.P.), evidently for electioneering purposes, is inscribed with "For his most excellent Majesty King George, For Peace and the Church of England as by law Established. For trade, and the good of our Country.

THOMAS VERNON."

The statement (in Noble's Biographical Dictionary) that this Mr. Vernon was Secretary to the unfortunate Duke of Monmouth, is believed to be incorrect.

1298. William Colle.
Walter Queynterel.

William Colle was one of the two Bailiffs of Worcester 1297, 1298, and M.P. 1298. He gave in 1310 to Worcester Priory all that land called Chestull, Oldcastle Edward's Church with common for six beasts in Dudley after the hay had been carried off, as also a messuage held then by Peter de Rougemente. The Bishop's license to alienate it was granted 8 id. July 1310.

John Comyn was M.P. Worcester 1301, 1311, co. Warwick 1329, and app. a Commr. to assess. co. Worc. 1 Nov. 1301. (Patent Rolls).

Peter Colle was evidently son or brother of the M.P. 1298. He sat for Worcester 1305, 1306, 1313, 1325, 1327.

1306. Peter Colle.
William de Salop.

1307. Jan. John Lony.
Walter de Northfeld.

Probably the same as John Lovi, Bailiff of Worcester 1272, 1297. Grant 12 Aug. 1328 at the instance of John de Wysham, Steward of the Household, to the Bailiffs and good men of Worcester of pontage for three years, to be taken by John Lony the younger and Wm. de Martloye (see 1324), citizens of Worcester. (Patent Rolls).

William Roculph was Bailiff of Worcester 1272, M.P. 1309, 1311. On 15 March 1308 commission of oyer and terminer issued to Justices on complaint by Ralph son of Cicely de Bello Loco who had freighted a vessel at Bewdley with brushwood merchandise and goods for Bristol, that Wm. Roculf, of Worcester, Richard le Mercer (see 1301), Wm. Colle (see 1298), and others, of Worcester seized his ship in the river Severn near Worcester, imprisoned him, and carried away his goods. Pardon 27 Dec. 1327 at the request of Roger de Mortuo Mari, to John de Hornyngwold, Wm. le Carter (see 1327), Robert de Sevenhampton (see 1332), Wm. The family of Horniyold existed in the county for many centuries. The M.P. in 1309 is the first recorded ancestor. They were afterwards seated at Blackmore Park, in the parish of Hanley Castle, the manor of which they acquired in the reign of Elizabeth. They recorded their descent at the visitations of 1533, 1634, and 1683, and became extinct so recently as 1859.

1311. Aug. John Comyn.
William Roculf.
1311. Nov. The same.
1313. July. Peter Colle.
Nicholas de Gloucestr'.

Probably like other Members the latter derived his name from the place of his birth, as did others like the next M.P. from their or their father's employment. Peter Colle was doubtless an early member of the family of Colles, afterwards seated at Suckley, Grimley, and Leigh Court.

In 1651 his house at Spetchley was burnt by the Scotch Presbyterians, whereupon he converted the stables into a dwelling-house, and lived with content and even dignity upon the wreck of his fortune. Sir Robert Berkeley died 5 Aug. 1656, aged 72. (M.I. Spetchley).

The House of Commons ordered Sir John Spelman to be sent for as a delinquent 10 Dec. 1642. (Commons Journal). His brother Clement was Cursitor Baron 1663-79. This Member must not be confused with his kinsman John Spelman who was M.P. 1654. July. William Collins.
Edward Elvines.

Capt. William Collins, (? son of John C., of King's Norton, who was fined £10 for not taking Knighthood 4 March 1631), was M.P. Worcester 1654-5, 1656-8, Jan. to April 1659, added to the Committee of co. Worc. by the House of Commons 11 May 1644, app. an Assessment Commr. for county and city of Worcester 1656, and a Sub-Commr. of the Grand Excise for co. Worc. 25 Feb 1650. On 1 Oct. 1651, "request by N. Lechmere M.P. (see Co. 1654) that Capt. Wm. Collins may be added to the County Committee for Worcester, Col. John James (see Co. 1653), not attending, and the work requires expedition. With note for a commission on Major Salway's recommendation." The Committee for Compounding accordingly made an order 7 Oct. 1651 that he be a Commr. for co. Worc., and on 14 March 1654 he was made sole sub-Commr. for co. Worc. He was Governor of Worcester on 9 July 1659 when the Council of State ordered him to assemble his troops, owing to Sir George Booth's rising. On 4 Jan. 1660 Capt. Collins wrote from Worcester College to the Army Commrs. :- "I have given order for the speedy drawing of my troop together for their march according to your directions, but their necessities for want of pay are very great, having been on hard duty for eight weeks, to preserve the peace of this country, which was much disturbed by highway robbers, being considerable parties, and supposed to be of the old enemy, they riding in the posture of soldiers; for this time they have had no money but what I have borrowed, and lent them, besides three years arrears formerly due to them. I shall according to your orders, as soon as I possibly provide to march, give notice thereof to Col. Hacker." (Cal. State Papers).

Edward Elvines (perhaps son of Wm. Elvines senior, baker, who left by will 2 April 1612, the use of 40s. in charity to the poor of St. Michael's, Worcester), was M.P. Worcester 1654-5, Mayor 1646, 1651, an Alderman of the City, one of the Parl. Committee for co. Worc. in 1646, added to the Committee for Sequestrations in co. Worc. 29 July 1648, app. a Sub-Commr. of Sequestrations (or the Grand Excise) for co. Worc. 25 Feb. 1650, an Assessment Commr. for Worcester City 1656. The Comm. for Compounding by order app. him one of the three Sequestration Commrs. for co. Worc. 14 Dec. 1653, but by another order 10 Jan. 1654 made void this appointment. On 2 March 1652 the Council of State recommended the House of Commons to app. John Coucher (see 1604) and E. Elvins, Aldermen of Worcester, to be J.P.s for that City. On 2 May 1654 Elvins petitioned the Protector "to consider his great expenses and sufferings for the public, and give him an estate to live upon in his old age. Had all along been engaged for the Parl., was obliged to fly his country for opposing the Commrs. of Array; he then did his best to engage men when the Earl of Essex came to Worcester; he fled again when Sir Wm. Russell (see Co. 1625), took the city and was away four years till it was reduced. His whole estate being exposed to the enemy he had to live on credit. Was persuaded to become Mayor on a faithful promise of reimbursement of all charges, there being no other that they would confide in; but Col. Rainsboro' (see Droitwich 1646), being called away and the Committee dissolved he had to undergo that great charge for which he is still in debt. Has been in public service ever since. When the Scots came to Worcester last, petitioner was obliged to fly a third time, but returned with the Parl. army; was then again persuaded by his Highness to take the government of the city, to the hazard of his life among the sick Scots, and is now unable to serve, having hardly a subsistence." The petition was referred to the Committee who reported that £600 should be paid him from delinquents' estates. Accordingly an ordinance was made by the Protector and his Council Sept. 1654 "for payment of £600 for his fidelity when Mayor in 1646 and when Governor in 1651, for his losses by the burning of his house, the plundering of his goods, and his expense in money." (Cal. State Papers).

Sir W. D. Gordon. T. 874.

The poll lasted from 16 to 23 June, and 1963 voted. On 2 Feb. Thomas Harper and other electors presented a petition against Col. Davies's return but it was dismissed 23 March 1819. Col. Thomas Henry Hastings Davies of Elmley, elder son of Thomas Davies, Advocate General to the E.I. Co., (who d.v.p. at Calcutta 1792), was b. 27 Jan. 1789, and named after his godfather the celebrated Governor General Warren Hastings, who was a great friend of his father's. At the age of 15 he entered the army as Ensign 52nd Light Infantry 2 June 1804, became Lieut. 31 Jan. 1805, and Captain 4 Feb. 1808, and saw much service in the Peninsular war, being present at the battles of Vimiera, Sabrugal, Fuentes d'Onoro, Pyrenees, Nion, and Nivelles, through all which he passed without receiving a wound. The History of the 52nd Light Infantry in its account of Vimiera 21 Aug. 1808, says:—"The French drove in the skirmishers of the 60th and the 95th regiments, whose retreat was covered by a company of the 95th and three companies of the 52nd, commanded by Captains Arbuthnot, Chetwynd, and Davies." He exchanged as Lieut. and Capt. into the 1st Foot Guards 7 Dec. 1809, with whom he fought at Waterloo 18 June 1815, and was promoted to Capt. and Lt.-Col. 3 July 1815, and received the Waterloo medal. On 25 March 1818 he retired from the Grenadier Guards (which name was given the 1st Foot Guards after Waterloo, for their prowess in defeating the French Grenadiers of the Guard at that battle), by exchanging to half pay of the Chasseurs Britanniques. He was promoted to the rank of Colonel in the army 10 Jan. 1837, and exchanged to the 6th Dragoon Guards 1 March 1839, in order to retire from the army the following day. Col. Davies m. 17 Jan. 1824 Augusta Anne only child of Thomas Champion de Crespigny M.P., of Sudbury, Suffolk. He came forward as a candidate for Worcester in 1816, but did not then proceed to a poll. Soon afterwards he purchased the estate of Elmley Castle from the executors of Mr. Bourne Charlotte, and winning a seat for Worcester in 1818 afterwards held it till 1841, with the exception of the period 1835-7 when he was defeated. In the House Col. Davies constantly seconded or supported Hume in his motions to secure economy in the public service, and acquired from his opponents the soubriquet of "Smollett" after the eminent continuator of Hume's History of England. He was a J.P. co. Worc., and an East India Proprietor. While canvassing at the General Election in Dec. 1834 Col. Davies was thrown out of his carriage, and slightly paralysed, and this gradually increasing necessitated his retiring from Parliament at the dissolution in 1841, and during the last few years of his life he became perfectly helpless. He died s.p. at Elmley Castle 11 Dec. 1846, aged 57. Several interesting souvenirs of his electoral contests are preserved at Elmley Castle by his nephew Lieut.-Gen. H. F. Davies, the present representative of the family, including some silver medals struck in honour of his victory in 1818, (with the words "Colonel Davies 16 June 1818," on one side," and "The friend of the people in advocating a free representation," on the other side), and a gilt eagle formerly attached to the chair in which he was carried round the City after his election in 1826, together with a handsome dinner service, made by Grainger, of Worcester, presented him by his supporters. The election and petition of 1818 cost him about £12,000, while he spent about £8000 on the contest of 1826.

Peter Bond.

On 1 Jan. 1301 the Abbot of Shrewsbury going to the Court of Rome received Letters Patent nominating Master Roger de Wenlock and Hugh, son of William Aleyn, of Minstersle, his attorneys until Whitsunday. (Patent Rolls). Peter Bond was again M.P. 1301.

Three members of the Falke family sat for Hereford in 1420, and 1435. (See Williams' Herefordshire Members).

William de Malverne.

1301. John Ungeun.
Peter Bonde.

In the Enrolment of the Writ de Expensis they are called Uniun and Bude.

Thomas Ingram.

The latter again sat 1309, 1311.

1309. Thomas Aleyn.
Thomas Ingeram.

1311. Aug. Thomas Aleyn.

One Burgess only was returned. Aleyn was evidently son or brother of the M.P. 1295.

1311. Nov. Thomas Aleyn.
Thomas Ingeram.

After this Parliament no further returns are found for the Borough of Droitwich or Wych, until 1554, and it seems clear that like other small Boroughs, it was during this period relieved of its right of sending two Burgesses to Parliament, and probably in like manner for the same reason, namely, at its own request in order to save the expense of paying wages to its Members, which was always regarded as a great burden. In 1554 however the Borough was again empowered to choose Members, by Philip and Mary, the first two or three returns being for the "Borough of Wick."

1554. Nov. 3. George Newporte.
Robert Wyth.

George Newport was M.P. Nov. 1554 to Jan. 1555, and Oct. to Dec. 1555; and was a resident of Droitwich. (Quære if his will proved at Worcester 1560). Both he and the M.P. 1559 (perhaps his brother or son) were doubtless of the same family as the Newports of Henley Court, a manor said to have been acquired by them temp. Edward VI.

Robert Wyth of Droitwich, 2nd son of John Wythe, was b. 1523, adm. to Inner Temple Feb. 1549, and became a Bencher, was Reader of his Inn 1572, Treasurer 1576, M.P. Robert Wyth jun.

1558. Jan. Robert Wythe. } Droitwich
W., of Droitwich. } Borough.

Robert Wythe. } Wick
Walter Gower. } Borough.

This apparently Double Return is clearly a blunder of some official, who did not know that Droitwich and Wick were one and the same, so made a return for both. Walter Gower may have been son of William G. of Holdfast in Ripple, who was H.S. co. Worc. 1549. He was a member of the right ancient family of Gower of Colemers, but he cannot be satisfactorily identified in the Visitation pedigrees.

1559. Jan. 4. Francis Newport.
Robert Wyyth.

The return is for Droitwich Borough (Wichium).

1562. Dec. Robert Wythe.
Walter Gower.

He died s.p. 1620, being styled "the loving father of the poor of Wolverley." He left his estate of Besford to his nephew Edward, who was made a Baronet 1626.

1588. Nov. 2. Francis Brace.
William Combes.

William Combe was also M.P. for Warwick 1593, and for co. Warwick 1597-8. He was one of the Combe family of Old Stratford in Warwickshire, and possibly a brother to Shakespeare's "John a Combe."

1593. Jan. Robert Walter.
George Wielde.

Robert Walter may have been a younger son of Edmund Walter of Ludlow, Chief Justice of the Brecknock circuit, and brother to Sir John Walter, Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer 1625-30.

1597. Oct. 3. John Acton.
Thomas Bailis.

John Acton was perhaps 5th son of Wm. Acton M.P. Bridgnorth 1550, 1554, and quare the same as John Acton of Salop who matric. Ball. Coll. Oxon. 14 June 1582, aged 28. More probably, however, he was son of Humphrey Acton of Burton, who d. 1590. If so he founded the Actons of Wolverton, an estate he inherited through his mother Alice sister of Wm. Cooksey of Wolverton.

Thomas Bailis matric. Magd. Hall, Oxon. under date 7 July 1578, aged 16, as Thomas Baylyes of co. Worc., and ent. Lincoln's Inn 1583, then formerly of Lyon's Inn.

His grandson was made a Baronet 1660.

Sir John Buck of Hamby Grange, co. Lincoln, and Nash co. Worc., son of Francis B. of Nash, matric. Magd. Hall, Oxon. under date 25 Feb. 1581, aged 15, ent. Inner Temple 1586, M.P. Droitwich Oct. to Dec. 1601, Knighted 23 July 1603, and d. 1648.

Coll. Oxon. 18 March 1608, aged 14, B.A. 24 Jan. 1611, barr.-at-law Inner Temple 16 April 1618, Bencher 14 June 1635, M.P. Droitwich 1628-9, and Dec. 1648 till his death 15 Jan. 1650.

1640. March 12. John Wylde.
Samuel Sandys (see Co. 1661).

1640. Oct. 19. Endymion Porter.
Samuel Sandys.

The celebrated courtier Endymion Porter who was probably returned through the influence of the Windsor family, was elder son of Edmond Porter of Aston-sub-Edge, Glouc., by his cousin Angelica dau. of Gyles Porter of Mickleton, co. Glouc., b. 1584, adm. to Gray's Inn 9 March 1620, sat for Droitwich Oct. 1640 till disabled to sit by Parliament 10 March 1643, and was bur. in St. Martin's in the Fields 20 Aug. 1649, aged 65. He possessed a taste for literature and art, and was the author of some verses. He was interpreter to Lord Nottingham's mission to Spain 1605, having been brought up in Spain, and been some time a Page in the household of Olivares. He then entered the service of Edward Villiers, and afterwards of his brother George Marquis of Buckingham, through whose influence he was app. Groom of the Bedchamber to Prince Charles, which post he afterwards held under the King, being for 30 years the personal attendant of Charles I., to whom he rendered the most faithful and devoted services.

Being in favour with James I. he was sent on the preparatory mission to Spain Oct. 1622, and was app. to attend Prince Charles on his celebrated visit there as one of the Gentlemen of the Bedchamber 1623, and this post he occupied until the King's death in Jan. 1649. Previously to this he was of the Duke of Buckingham's household (probably his Secretary), for the Cal. State Papers 1619 makes mention of him in one of its gossiping letters, as follows, "Porter, Buckingham's servant, to marry Lady Roos," though this rumour turned out to be false. On 30 Dec. 1618 the Crown granted to Endymion Porter and Richard Peate for 7 years all the fines for non-payment of the subsidy and exportation of prohibited goods, or in other words they became "Farmers of goods forfeited for non-payment of Customs." In consequence of their complaint that they were likely to lose money by this office they were further granted on 17 Sept. 1619 permission to assign over debts to the King, to enable them to pay their rent of £800 for the above goods. On 16 Nov. 1619 Porter obtained a lease from the Crown of Exminster Rectory, Devon, "he having found out the King's right to the same, on condition of his repairing the premises and paying £50 a year to a curate." On 16 May 1625 Secretary Conway (see Evesham 1621) ordered the Attorney General Coventry (see 1620) to prepare 6 several grants of £500 pension to the Grooms of the Bedchamber, Endymion Porter's name coming last of the six, and on 24 May following he was granted a pension of £500 a year accordingly. (Privy Seals). Whether he held the office of Groom Porter is uncertain, but as shewing his confidential position at Court, Sir William Russell (see Co. 1625) wrote to Porter, from Witley, in 1629, stating "that his sister Wintour's eldest boy was believed to have the King's evil, and that there was no cure except the Royal touch; asking what time would be most convenient for the King to receive him," and the Cal. State Papers for that year contains several other references to the same matter. He was sent on a further mission to Spain 1628, and was app. Collector and Receiver of the Fines in the Star Chamber 9 July 1628, which he still held in 1635. He purchased the post of Surveyor of Petty Customs in the Port of London, and had also an interest in the Soap Monopoly. His unsuccessful Embassy to the Cardinal Infante Ferdinand of Spain (Gov. of the Low Countries), is thus referred to:—"Jan. 1635, Mr. Porter sent to congratulate the Cardinal Infante has returned, having received no great satisfaction, for the Prince never moved his hat or foot." Jan. 1635, "Warrant to pay him £2000, one for his late message to the Infante Cardinal, the other for divers services done to His Majesty without account." On 15 Nov. 1637 the Court of Wards granted to Francis Lord Dunsmore and Endymion Porter the custody of Wm. Lord Boteler, an idiot, with his estates rents and goods. The King also gave him a grant of the Wandsworth estate. On 2 March 1638 Articles of Agreement were drawn up between Endymion Porter, Groom of the Bedchamber, of the first part, Wm. Ward of the second part, and Gerrard Wright, alias Herbert, of the 3rd part, for draining marsh and surrounded lands in cos. Carmarthen, Pembroke, and Glamorgan, and the division of the lands so to be gained. On 15 Feb. 1642 the House of Commons resolved, "that Mr. Endymion Porter, of the Bedchamber, is thought fit to be removed from the Persons and Courts of the King and Queen, as one that is conceived to give dangerous counsel." (Commons Journal). He was active in secret services for the King during the Civil War, and Parliament always excepted him from indemnity. He is said to have been Colonel of the 7th regt. of foot, but this was probably only a nominal command. He left England in 1645, and fled to France, and then to Brussels. By the Committee for Advance of Money he was assessed at £2000 on 28 July 1644, and an order was made 2 July 1645 that his goods, which were at Lord Butler's, Woodhall, Herts, be seized and secured. 3 Nov. 1645, Order that Porter pay £14 6s. od. for salary and expenses in seizing and appraising the goods. 16 Jan. 1650, "On information that Dr. Charlton owed the late Endymion Porter £10 for which Porter did not compound, order that Charlton pay it to this Committee, unless Porter's executor Sir Wm. Russell (see County 1625), show cause to the contrary." In addition to this he had also to encounter the Committee for Compounding, for on 17 April 1649, "Endymion Porter of Mickleton and Aston-under-Edge, co. Glouc. (the late value of his estate being £260, and the present, 1648, value £150), begs to compound for delinquency in attending the King being one of His Majesty's servants in ordinary, both at Oxford and elsewhere. Never took any command nor bore arms in the war. 29 June, Fine at one-half, £222 10s. od., allowance being made for a debt of £1750." In 1619 or 1620 Porter married Olive 4th dau. of John, 1st Lord Butler, of Bramfield, (by Elizabeth, sister of George Villiers, 1st Duke of Buckingham), and co-heir to her brother the above mentioned William, 2nd Lord Butler, who died 1647. Of their five sons, the eldest George Porter was Groom of the Bedchamber to Charles II.; the 2nd son Charles was killed in the war against the Scots 1640; and the yst. son James Porter was Vice Chamberlain to James II. Endymion Porter made his will 26 March 1639, his executors being his wife Olive, and the Earls of Worcester and Newcastle. He was one of the handsomest men of his time, and many particulars concerning him may be found in Clarendon's and Rapin's Histories, and in Evelyn's Memoirs. There exist several portraits of him by Vanduyck, but especially a family piece of himself, his wife, and three of his sons, which is esteemed one of that painter's finest productions.

1646. Dec. Thomas Rainsborough.
Edward Wilde.

vice Porter and Sandys disabled to sit.

Edward Wilde, apparently son of Sir Edward W. of Kempsey, by Dorothy dau. and heir of Sir Francis Clarke of Houghton Conquest, co. Bedford, and cousin to Chief Baron Wilde (see County 1640), matric. Ch. Ch. Oxford 29 Nov. 1633, aged 15, barr.-at-law Inner Temple 1644, and was one of the Committee of the Navy in 1650. He sat as M.P. 1646-53, but seems to have been dead before 1659.

Major-General Thomas Rainsborough was the son of Capt. William Rainsborough, a gallant sailor, who was Admiral of the English Fleet employed against the Turks at Salée in June 1637 (see Carte's History of England, vol. 4, p. 231), and afterwards was M.P. for Aldeburgh (Suffolk), March to May 1640, and Oct. 1640 till his death in 1642. (His burial on 16 Feb. 1642 as the Grand Admiral and General Captain Rainsborough is mentioned in Cal. State Papers). The son was brought up at sea, and commanded the Swallow of 34 guns in 1643. He took a very active part in the Civil War on the side of Parliament, and, had he lived, would probably have proved a thorn in Cromwell's side. As was not unusual at that time, he held command on land, as well as on sea, and with the rank of Colonel assisted Fairfax in the defence of Hull, but was taken prisoner in the sally which raised the siege. He fought at Naseby, took part in the siege of Bristol, and was Governor of Woodstock and Taunton. On 3 May 1643 "the humble petition of Capt. Thomas Rainsborough was read and ordered to be referred to the Committee for Irish affairs, to take order for the speedy relief and satisfaction of Petitioner," and on 17 June 1643, "Upon the petition of Capt. Thomas Rainsborough complaining that being Vice Admiral to the Lord Forbes in the late Irish expedition and Commissary General of land forces he had overpaid certain sums, and asking for payment to him back again, all suits were stayed against him till his return, he being Captain of the Lyon under the Earl of Warwick." On 4 Nov. 1643, "upon petition of Margaret wife of Col. Thomas Rainsborough it was resolved, that this House approve of the exchange of Capt. Kettleby, prisoner to the Parliament here at London, for Col. T. R. now prisoner to the Earl of Newcastle, and taken at the siege at Hull." (Commons Journal). He appears to have been Col. of a reg. 1643 to April 1645 chiefly stationed in Lincolnshire, and in Nov. 1644 he was endeavouring to reduce Crowland and to secure the Isle of Ely. The Committee of both Kingdoms ordered 7 May 1645 that orders be sent him to march up to join Cromwell. On 30 Sept. 1645 Sir Harry Vane jun. wrote to his father, stating that "Berkeley Castle has surrendered to Col. Rainsborough upon composition, since the taking of Devizes." He was at this period very actively employed. Being app. by the House to command the foot at Banbury 10 Feb. 1646, he was ordered 9 March to Reading to dispose of the recruits as he thought best, "the Henley horse to receive orders from Col. R." He and Col. Fleetwood were ordered to block up Oxford 28 March, and on 3 April he was actively engaged in besieging Woodstock Manor, the Committee of the Army being ordered 10 April to furnish him with £100. Sir W. Fleetwood and John Ashbournham received the King's instructions 25 April 1646, to treat with Col. R. for His Majesty's safe conduct to London. He succeeded Col. Edward Whalley in the siege of Worcester about 10 July, and the City surrendered to him 19 July 1646. In 1647 Col. R., who was not wanting in the energy requisite for leading a party, was in favour of the demands of the Independent Agitators, and called for the punishment of those who had entered into an understanding with the King. (Ranké's History). On 16 May 1647 he was making preparations to reduce Jersey. He was sent by the army at Hounslow Heath to take possession of the city 3 Aug. 1647. On 20 Sept. 1647, "high language passed between him and Cromwell at a Council of War," while on 4 Nov. "Cols. Rainsborough and Pride and Henry Martin have won Cromwell through fear to side against the King." On 15 Nov. "Col. R. has tried to prevent a division in the army. He and Martin laboured to impeach Cromwell of treason," but the tables turned, for on 18 Nov. "Col. R. and Major Scott are suspended the House." Peace was soon, however, made between him and Cromwell. The House of Commons app. him 27 Sept. 1647, to be "Captain of the ship Happy Entrance, and Vice Admiral of the Fleet app. for the next Winter Guard," to which proposition the House agreed 2 Oct., while on 8 Oct. the Commons also nominated him Commander in Chief of the said Fleet, and ordered him to watch the Isle of Wight with 4 ships 22 Dec. 1647, as they greatly feared that the King would be rescued from Carisbrooke Castle. The Commons gave their Warrant 3 Nov. 1647 to pay him £1000 for arrears. When he went to rejoin his naval command in the spring, after an absence of some time on shore, a mutiny broke out among the Fleet in the Downs, commenced on his own ship, which would not receive him aboard again. Whether it was occasioned by his own faults, for he was a man of a rough imperious nature, or whether it was owing to a dislike to serve under a land officer, the result was nearly being disastrous to the Parliament, for Rainsborough, who narrowly escaped being hanged by his own sailors, was put into a boat and sent on shore, while prompted by the secret agents of the royalists, whose hopes rose high on this occasion, about half the fleet weighed anchor, and sailing over to Holland placed themselves under the command of the Duke of York. An interesting account is given in Lord Clarendon's History of the Rebellion of the incidents attending Col. Rainsborough's death, which took place at Doncaster 29 Oct. 1648, when he was surprised at night in his bed, by a party of the garrison of Pomfret Castle, and afterwards killed to prevent his escape. This event made a great stir at the time, for "there was not an officer in the army whom Cromwell would not as willingly have lost as this man, who was bold and barbarous to his wish, and fit to be intrusted in the most desperate interest. He was bred at sea and was son of an eminent commander at sea lately dead, but he himself, from the time of the new model, had been an officer of foot in the army, and was a Colonel of special note and account, and of Cromwell's chief confidants." The Commons on 3 Nov. ordered "that it be specially recommended to Lord General Cromwell forthwith to make a strict and exact scrutiny of the manner of the horrid murder of Col. R. and to certify the same to the House." A Letter from London dated 9 Nov. 1648, to be found in the Clarendon Papers, gives an account of his death at Doncaster by Capt. Palden's party of horse. On 17 Dec. 1650 information was laid before the Committee for Advance of Money against Robert Portington, of Hatfield, Yorkshire, "that he was a soldier and officer for the King through the war in Pontefract Castle, confederate with the party that killed Col. R." Parliament ordered 22 June 1650 that his widow should have "£100 at once and £200 a year till an Act be passed for settling lands upon her," and on 23 Sept. 1653 Somerton manor, Somerset, was bought by Major John Wildman for Margaret widow of Col. T. R. and William her son in payment of £3,000 granted them by Parliament to pay Col. R.'s debts, while on 18 July 1654 West Derby and Treales manor, Lancashire, were also purchased for them.

The youngest of these sisters, Joanna, married Sir Walter le Blond of Rock, ancestor of the Blounts of Sodington. On 26 Sept. 1300 Wm. de Sudington and John de Bromfield were app. attorneys for one year for Owen de Monte Gomeri going to the Court of Rome with Hugh le Despencer. (Patent Rolls).

By virtue of a clause inserted in James I.'s first Charter to Evesham, dated 2 March 1604, the right of electing two Members of Parliament was restored to the Borough.

After the dissolution of this Parliament 10 March 1629, no fresh one was called until 1640. April 4. William Sandys.

William Morton.

Capt. William Sandys of Askham, Notts, and Fladbury, 4th and yst. son of Sir Samuel S. of Ombersley (see Co. 1609), matric. Broadgates Hall, Oxon., 13 June 1623, aged 14. He was J.P. and Ald. of Evesham, M.P. April to May 1640, Oct. 1640 till expelled as a monopolist Jan. 1641, and again 1661 till his death s.p. shortly before 29 Oct. 1669. Being an active energetic man he obtained a grant from the King by virtue of which he commenced in March 1635 the attempt of making the River Avon navigable. but after spending £20,000 upon it, and encountering the powerful personal opposition of Sir Wm. Russell, the High Sheriff (see Co. 1635), who did his best to hinder him in every way, Mr. Sandys relinquished the idea. He obtained from the King a patent for a toll of 12d. upon the cauldron more than the old tax, on goods carried on the Avon, and it was for this monopoly that he was expelled the House in 1641. He had a liberty of Bailiwick in the Hundreds of Oswaldslow and Pershore in 1636, and was made J.P. co. Worc. 10 July 1660. He was a Royalist.

William Morton or Moreton of Winchcombe, co. Gloucester, son of James M. of Clifton-on-Severn, b. 1605, matric. Trin. Coll. Oxon. 26 Oct. 1521, aged 15, B.A. from Sydney Sussex Coll. Camb. 1622, M.A. 1625, and was called to the bar at the Inner Temple 28 Nov. 1630, and chosen a Bencher thereof 24 Nov. 1659. He m. Anne dau. and sole heir of John Smyth of Kidlington co. Oxford. He took up arms for the King during the Civil War, and received the rank of Lieut. Col., was Knighted at Oxford 8 Sept. 1643, and Governor of Sudeley Castle, co. Glouc. in 1644, but was afterwards taken prisoner there on 17 Aug. 1644, and ordered to be committed to the Tower, and on 1 Oct. 1647 the House of Commons ordered "that Sir Wm. Moreton, now a prisoner in the Tower, be removed to the prison of Peter House." He was made a Sergeant-at-Law 6 July 1660, King's Sergeant 1 July 1663, app. for life Recorder of Gloucester (fee £6 13s. 4d. a year) by the new Charter 18 April 1662, Chief Justice of the Great Sessions for cos. Carmarthen, Cardigan, and Pembroke (salary £50 a year) Aug. 1660-5, M.P. Evesham April to May 1640, Haverfordwest 1661 till election declared void May 1663, and again June 1663 till made a Justice of the King's Bench 23 Nov. 1665, and was buried in the Temple Church, "under his monument," 1 Oct. 1672, aged 68. Quære whether the grant made 30 May 1632 to John Morton in reversion after the death of John Melton of the office of Secretary and Keeper of the Signet to the Council in the North, applies to his brother.

1640. Oct. 16. Richard Cresheld.
William Sandys.
Hon. John Coventry.

This was a Double Return. A petition was presented to the House concerning the business of this election, which was referred to the Committee of Privileges 9 Nov. 1640. In the end Mr. Coventry's election was disallowed, but he appears to have informed the House of the patent for tolls which Mr. Sandys enjoyed, with the result that the latter was expelled.

1641. Feb. 2. Hon. John Coventry, vice Sandys expelled the House as a monopolist. Eldest son by his 2nd wife of Lord Keeper Coventry, (see Droitwich 1620,) and brother to the M.P. for Droitwich 1661, he m. Elizabeth dau. and co-heir of John Coles of Barton, Somerset, and widow of Herbert Dodington. He was disabled to sit 12 Aug. 1642 for joining in the Commission of Array. His son Sir John Coventry K.B. of Pitminster, Somerset, was M.P. for Weymouth and Melcombe Regis Jan. 1667-81, and was the Member so cruelly assaulted by a party of courtiers 21 Dec. 1670, for his speech in the House, which affair occasioned so much outcry that the Parliament immediately passed the "Coventry Act," with a clause expressly depriving the King of the power of pardoning the offenders.

1645. Oct. Samuel Gardner of Evesham vice Coventry disabled to sit. He was son or kinsman of Philip Gardner, who was Mayor of Evesham 1618, and was himself Mayor 1625, 1633, 1642, 1653, and M.P. Oct. 1645 till he was secluded Dec. 1648. He appears to have been a wealthy man, for on 16 Jan. 1643 he lent £1000 without interest to Lord Brooke the Parliamentary commander, (slain in storming Lichfield,) and had considerable trouble in getting it back from the Parliament, if he ever did so, as appears by several references to the matter in the Commons Journal. "21 April 1643, ordered that Sir Rob. Harley (see 1628) do bring in an ordinance to-morrow morning for securing upon the Public Faith the thousand pounds borrowed of Sam. Gardner, Mayor of Evesham, by the late Lord Brooke, and employed for the service of the kingdom, as appears by a receipt under the hand of the said Lord Brooke." On 26 April 1643 for this service, and also for "that he in his own person, with a Troop of Horse, raised, furnished, and maintained at his own charge, and brought in upon the propositions £100 in money, and 10 horses, and £250 towards reducing of Ireland, the House of Commons do hereby declare that the said Sam. Gardner had done good and acceptable service to the Commonwealth." The petition of Capt. Sam. Gardner for repayment was ordered to be read and to be referred, 6 June 1646. On 23 June 1646, "Warrant from the House of Commons to the Treasurer of the Committee at Goldsmith's Hall to pay S.G. £1000; on order of the House 6 June on his petition; all former orders for payment revoked." This however did not restore his money to him, for on 15 March 1647 the House ordered, "that his arrears of pay £715 be paid, and that his principal and interest amounting to £1440 7s. 7d. with interest be paid." Another Warrant issued 21 May 1648 for his arrears of pay £715. He seems to have been lord of the manor of Bewdley, as the manorial Courts were held in his name, 1670-3, but in 1674 he sold his title to the manor for £2765 to Sir Francis Winnington, (see Worcester 1679).

He m. Mary dau. of Sir George Clerk, of Watford, Northants., was made K.B. 23 April 1661, Recorder of Evesham in 1659, app. Recorder of Bristol 1661, Solicitor General to the Queen May 1662-72, M.P. co. Carmarthen Nov. 1656-8, Evesham Jan. to May 1659, East Looe 1661-72, Middlesex Dec. 1680 to Jan. 1681. He was a Commr. for discharging, settling, and recovering the arrears of Excise due to the King 8 Feb. to 29 Nov. 1661, a Justice of the Common Pleas April 1672 to May 1679, when he was removed, and Master of St. Katherine's Hospital Aug. to Nov. 1681. He signed the Indenture of Return of the two Members, as a witness, 11 April 1661. His sister and heir Mary (who d. 1668, aged 59), married William eldest son of Sir Wm. Lygon. On 8 May 1655 John Egiock, of Shernock (with Sir John Pettus, of Cheston, Suffolk), begged the Committee for Compounding "to order the repair of the mansion-house &c. of Henlip (Hindlip) Manor, of which Mary Habington is seized for life with remainder to petitioners."

1661. April 11. William Sandys (see 1640).
Abraham Cullin.

Abraham Cullin of London, and East Sheen, Surrey, was son of Abraham C. (whose father Richard C. came into England on the persecution of the Protestants in the Low Countries by the Duke of Alva, and was descended from Arnould Van Ceulen of Breda, in the Duchy of Brabant, living in 1300.) He m. Abigail yst. dau. of John Rushout of London, merchant, and sister to the M.P. 1670, was made a Baronet 17 June, 1661, and sat for Evesham 1661 till his death in 1669.

1669. Oct. 29. Sir John Hanmer Knt. of Hanmer, co. Flint, vice Sir A. Cullen, Bt., dec. On the petition of Sir James Rushout 3 Nov. 1669, the Return was examined, and the Committee of Privileges and Elections reported 22 Nov. that Sir James was the duly elected Member, and not Sir John Hanmer. To this the House disagreed, and the same day resolved, "that the right of election was in the common burgesses of Evesham, and that the election was void, and that Edward Field the Mayor be taken into the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms for his misdemeanour in making the return for the Borough of Evesham, and denying the poll, and be reprimanded by the Speaker."

1669. Dec. 7. Sir John Hanmer, vice Cullen dec., the former election having been declared void. Elder son of Sir Thomas Hanmer (see Williams' Parl. Hist. of Wales), whom he succ. as 3rd Bart. 1678, and m. Mary dau. and heir of Joseph Alston of Netherhall, Suffolk. He took an active part in the measures for restoring Charles II. in 1660, subscribing £600 towards that loyal object, and got together a body of 60 Horse when the King was expected. He was nom. a Knight of the Royal Oak for Flintshire 1660, (his estate being put down at £3000 a year), received the honour of Knighthood 9 Aug. 1660, sat for Flint Jan. to April 1659, Evesham 1669-79, Flintshire 7 to 28 March 1681, Flint 1685-7, and 1689-90, app. a Commr. of the Navy (£500 a year) 8 Nov. 1672 and seemingly held that post till 17 April 1686. He was app. Keeper of the Game in the Crown Lordships of North Wales by Charles II., and held that post in 1681, and was Col. of the troop of Horse Militia in co. Flint which was "called out" July 1666, and still held that command in 1684. In the Seasonable Argument for a New Parliament, 1677, he is described as: "a prodigal Gentleman of the Horse to the Master of the Horse, a Commr. of Excise in Ireland, and a Troop of Horse in Ireland, £2,000 given him in money." Sir John's name appears in the list of J.P.'s for co. Flint in 1680, and as a Commr. of Taxes for that county in 1689. He was Col. of the 11th or N. Devon regt. of foot Dec. 1688-1701, and took his regt. into action at the Battle of the Boyne 1690. He was M.P. for Carlingford in the Irish Parliament 1695-9, and d. s.p. 1701. Burke styles him a Major-General, but this is an error.

Mr. Roberts, an attorney, acquired the patronage of the Borough in 1806, which he exercised for several years. In 1816 Bewdley possessed 13 voters—the Bailiff and Capital Burgesses.

On 19 Aug. 1646 Sir Ralph Clare was "assessed at £1,000, and on 8 March 1648 was to be sequestered for non-payment, but on 10 July 1650 his assessment was discharged, as he has compounded and paid his fine." He "compounded for delinquency 20 Aug. 1646. Sir Ralph was "a man of eminent civility," and a devoted Royalist, who spent his fortune in the royal cause. He wielded great influence at Bewdley and Kidderminster, where he was a great opponent of the pious Richard Baxter, rector of Kidderminster. He sold Croome D'Abitot to Sir Thomas Coventry, (see Droitwich 1620). By his will he left Charities to Kidderminster, consisting of 6 Almshouses, and £30 to be lent to poor tradesmen. 1625. May 5. The same, re-el. 22 Jan. 1626, 5 March 1628.

1640. March. Sir Henry Herbert Knt.

A petition was presented against his return, probably by Sir Ralph Clare, which was ordered 16 April 1640 to be proceeded with in order with other petitions, but the Parliament itself was dissolved 5 May following.

Sir Henry Herbert, the distinguished courtier, was the 6th son of Richard Herbert, of Montgomery Castle, (see Williams' Parl. Hist. of Wales), where he was b. about 1595. His eldest brother Edward was created Lord Herbert of Chirbury 1629, while George Herbert, the gentle and pious poet, was another brother. Henry Herbert spent some time in France, and was in 1619 second to his brother Edward in his duel with Sir Robert Vaughan, and also fought several duels himself. He was sworn in "King James' servant" 20 March 1621, Knighted 7 Aug. 1623, and carried a bannerol at the King's funeral 1625. He acted as Deputy to Sir John Ashley the Master of the Revels, probably from 22 May 1622 when Ashley was granted the post, but was practically in unchallenged possession of the office and certainly performed its duties from 7 Aug. 1623, when the King "received him as Master of the Revels," until June 1642. He and Simon Thelwall were granted the reversion of the office 13-23 Aug. 1629 after the death of Ben Jonson (who d. 20 Nov. 1635), and Ashley (who d. 13 Jan. 1641), but Herbert perhaps bought their interests in the same before their deaths. Richard Baxter visited him in 1633, when he introduced that eminent divine at Court. He was app. a Gentleman of the Privy Chamber to the King 20 March 1621 (and perhaps held the office until his death in 1673), and joined the expedition at Berwick against the Scots May 1639, and was M.P. Montgomery Jan. to June 1626, Bewdley March to May 1640, Oct. 1640 till disabled to sit 20 Aug. 1642, for joining the King, and executing the Commission of Array, and signed the loyal letter sent by the King's Parliament at Oxford to the Earl of Essex 27 Jan. 1644. Being brought before the Commrs. of Sequestration, Sir Wm. Brereton the Parliamentary General put in a good word for Herbert, and on 6 Jan. 1646 "begged favour of (for) him as being respectful to prisoners, and having done other good offices. Sat at Oxford. 3 Sept., Fine at one third £1,330, at two thirds £2,661." Sir Henry bought Ribbesford manor for £5,000 from Sir Henry Mildmay of Wanstead, Essex, 3 Aug. 1627, and was H.S. co. Worc. 1648. He was married twice, his 2nd wife whom he m. about 1650 being Elizabeth dau. of Sir Robert Offley of Dalby, co. Leicester. At the Restoration in 1660 Herbert became again Master of the Revels, for life, and on 1 Oct. 1660 a Warrant was granted "to pay him £200, and to advance him yearly such sums as are needful for his office." (Cal. State Papers). He again sat for Bewdley 1661 until his death 27 April 1673, and was buried in St. Paul's Church, Covent Garden. Walton said of him, "he became a menial servant to the Crown in the days of King James, and hath continued to be so for 50 years, during all which time he hath been Master of the Revels, a place that requires a diligent wisdom, which he possessed." In the Bewdley Wardens' Accounts appear the following items: "1632, Paid for two gallons of wine when the Townsmen went to Sir Hen: herbert to Ribbesford—4s. od." ; "1637, Paid Sr. Hen: Harbt. which he disbursed at london for the Towne—£7 3s. 8d."

On 6 Sept. 1641 he gave his certificate as Sheriff, that, being app. by Act of Parl. to receive the poll money for co. Worc. he had received £600 poll money from the Commrs. for Worcester limit which was a third part of the hundred of Oswaldslow. Mr. Dobbins who m. Ursula dau. of Robert Waller, was a London merchant, who bought the Old Hall, Kidderminster, 1635, from Edmund Waller M.P. the poet, and lived there for some years, but afterwards sold the capital mansion house and lands for £1200 to Sir Thomas Rouse, (see Co. 1654). Richard Baxter mentioned him as "the most eminent and truly religious magistrate of Bewdley, at last Member of the Long Parliament." 1647, "paid Mr. Hopkins his charges in going to London to get allowance for our Minister—£2." These historical and genealogical studies, which practically form a New Biographical Dictionary for each County of which they treat, open up a previously unexplored branch of Family History, and have met with a most favourable reception. The intention is to give in a clear and concise form as full and exhaustive accounts as possible of the lives and achievements of the Members of Parliament, whose ranks, be it remembered, have ever been supplied from the most learned, the most valiant, and the most eminent of those who have made English History. The Author would esteem it a favour if Gentlemen interested in the matter, would kindly communicate any information in their possession dealing with such Members of their Family as have sat in Parliament, to

W. R. WILLIAMS.
